

Will He Score Another Point?

Tom Zielinski demonstrates the kicking technique used in the game between the Behrend Lions and Allegheny soccer team. Those watching are (L. to R.) Carl Torelli, Bob Sokoloff, Coach Hank Goodwin, and Joe Rupczewski.

"The Day The Earth Stood Still"

By Wes Carter

A shrill whistle interrupted a calm, fall atmosphere; there was a thud of leather against the ball. During the hours that followed one of the best soccer games in the history of Behrend Center was played. The Behrend Lions recently defeated the Allegheny soccer team by the score of 3-0.

To better understand the significance behind this great victory, let's turn back the pages of time. The beginning was not a practice session a month before the game; it was not a team lecture a week before the game. Instead, the beginning was five minutes before kickoff time. Aside from the usual pre-game pep talk, the team was lectured on rules and fundamentals of soccer play. At the close of the team's brief talk, it took the field with a very pessimistic view toward the whole situation. They knew they were doomed to failure.

At one end of the field stood the debonaire princes of Allegheny. Each member, seeming to weigh no less than 190 pounds, was clad in a good looking uniform. At the opposite end of the field stood eleven individuals, all of different sizes and shapes, and not one had a complete uniform on his back.

The able bodied members of this cacophony were Tom Zielinski, Carl Torelli, Harvey Bain, Bob Verbanic, Nick Smolakov, Bob Sokoloff, William Roberge, Wes Carter, Bob Lugo (the toe), Dave Rundquist, and Joe Rupczewski. The team was backed by reliable personnel such as Philip Smith, Charles Bail, Charles Vandervort, and Ed Muirhead. With a blast of the whistle and a cheer from the crowd, the team took the defensive. At this time I would like to state that our crowd consisted of none other than Miss Tudy Russell.

Through the consistency of the front line attack, the team was able to score. The persons who scored the points were Bob Verbanic who accounted for two of them, and Nick Smolakov who aided with one. No less important were the halfbacks who worked so hard to keep the ball in enemy territory.

One of the most important factors which aided in breaking the opponent's spirit was the long kicks down the field administered by our great fullbacks. The goalie performed in an extraordinary manner by valiantly defending our goal when it was threatened.

Many thrills were derived from this game, but no one was more thrilled than Coach Goodwin. It was for him that the boys played, and it was for him that they won.

STRIKES and SPARES

By Dick Covatto

Strike! and the Bowlers in the Behrend League are off to another fine season. The six teams in this classic league are blasting the maples at a torrid clip. At the rate the pins are flying around, we'll need new wood in a few weeks. I do hope the bowling committee of Student Council will look into this.

There have been several high games recorded for both men and women in the past few weeks. The gentlemen of Behrend have four games over 195. The highest game this past week was your editor's effort of 208. Bob Burns threw a 201; this was the first game in which Bob participated. We hope you have a great year, Bob. Jerry Mitchell of the "Bombers" rolled a 199, only one pin shy of the 200 mark. Better luck next time, Mitch. Burt Hackenberg had a 198 and missed the magic circle by two pins. So loads of luck in the future, Burt.

As for the fairer sex, there were four games over 150. Their highest was Evelyne Balmer with a 162. This certainly is the high game for the women. Close behind is Helen Goodwin with a 159. Delores Davies is next in line with 154. Janet James "Wrong-foot" Warren also has a 154. With the conclusion of four weeks of bowling the five highest averages follow:

Dick Covatto—182
Bob Burns—174
Burt Hackenberg—166
Joe Rupczewski—165
Bill Mosso—154
Here are the league standings after four weeks' play:
	W L
Sokoloff's "Keglers"	12 4
Mitchell's "Bombers"	11 5
Theobald's "Bruisers"	10 6
Faculty Five	10 6
Faulk's "Alley-Rats"	4 12
Hackenberg's "Choppers"	1 15

An important announcement has just reached my ears. Doris won her first badminton game, defeating Bobbie, 11-3! Janet Warren has also attained a new height. Jan, a faithful member of Hackenberg's "Choppers," recently bowled 154. Laz is trying to break this record, and with her 100 point handicap, she at least has a chance.

Bernie is looking for a group of boys who can't dance to use as pupils in her dancing class. One question — Can you dance, Bernie?

Judy must have more influence than any other girl on campus—so influential that she doesn't even need to stick pins in gym class. She relies on the able assistance of John Cipriani.

The frosh girls recently went for a walk up the gorge. Did you know that one of the most beautiful displays of fall colors in this part of the county can be viewed from a point directly opposite the cemetery?

SPORTSCOPE

The mighty Behrend soccer squad, which is undefeated this year, held an Allegheny College team scoreless in a brilliant opening game. Score: 3-0. Members of the squad are as follows: Thomas Zielinski, Nick Smolakov, Carl Torelli, Robert Sokoloff, Robert Verbanic, Harvey Bain, Wesley Carter, David Rundquist, William Roberge, Robert Lugo, Joseph Rupczewski, Philip Smith, Charles Bail, Charles Vandervort, and Ed Muirhead. Good game men!

Behrend's basketball squad has been tuning up of late and looks very promising. Of twenty-three that turned out originally, eleven boys are still plugging. Forget about the homework, school spirit is what counts. The coach delivered a tentative schedule which includes competition with the following schools: Altoona, McKeesport, Newcastle, Allegheny, Alliance, and Jamestown. Information on the time and place of these games will be forthcoming.

Touch football is off to a slow start with many of the teams wanting to eat dinner instead of playing. Where are Stull Hall's rough and ready boys? One game has been played and one forfeited.

Team 4—37
Team 3—0
Team 3—forfeit
Team 2—won
Team one consists of Bill Murray, Bill Novatny, Gerald Sedney, and Charles Muirhead.

Team two players are Oim Stancliff, Bert Hackenberg, Dick Maloney, and Robert Lugo.

Francis Hursen, Ronald Raymond, John Beatty, and Fred Monaco make up team three.

Chuck Simons, Bob Taylor, Dave Barnett, and Dick Jannuleski are the members of team four.

Let's get behind these boys—push them out on the field.

On the one hand, you have Thirsty G. Smith. Good taste to him means zest and zip in a beverage, sparkle and lift and all like that . . .
On the other hand, T. Gourmet Smythe perceives good taste as the right, fit and proper refreshment for a Discriminating Coterie. So? . . . Have it both ways! Coca-Cola . . . so good in taste, in such good taste.
