The length of wrestling classes was three weeks, but for most of us it lasted only a few days. When one looks at such grapplers as Bob Pawlak and Frank Hursen, can one have other recourse? And the gruelling, body-ripping calisthenics used as a warmup—Wow! And the results: listless weight drifting toward the classroom building.

Back to classes after the pleasant Easter vacation, softball was the order of the day, and such great men as Kuda "No-hit-no-run" Thomas and Bob "Mickey Mantle" Verbanic proceeded to make their names good, if not on the field, in the cafeteria. "Mickey" Verbanic, pulling the play of the day, put a new twist into our age-old game when chasing a pop-fly—he saw where it would land so he slid into it, physically at least, and almost caught the ball. Darned if that wasn't a cute play.

Overheard: Coach Goodwin in explaining the intricacies of the game to John "Mudcat" Cipriani, said, "John, this is a baseball, quite different from the dodgeball. Remember this, and you will be great." John walked away, finally convinced, but I don't think he will be very elated upon reading this.

Those on the golf team at the present moment are Dick Januleski, Richard Januleski, and me. The coach is definitely seeking replacements, and those of you who are interested, please see the coach and tell him how great you are. I'm tired of listening to those great scores. All kidding aside, the coach has matches scheduled with Jamestown, Alliance, and Gannon, both at home and away. To climax the golf season, the Allegheny Invitational at Meadville. All golfing fees are paid, plus some of the meals.

The veterans on the golf squad are Milt Bryant, Bud "Chuka Boots" Seifert, and yours truly or any other way, if you care. "Ben Hogan" Beatty plans to make the team, and I'm with him all the way because he buys the soda pop all the time. Nick Smolakov, "The Mad Russian," also is trying out.

Bright spots: Bill Ames still trying vainly to get in the girls Phys. Ed. Classes. Dear Bill: That sign on the locker room door, "Girls Only," wasn't tacked there for posterity.

Sympathies to the family of Chuck Blass, who was punctured during archery class. Who dunnit? Unbelievable? Incredible? Not if you know Blass.

Well, that's all for now gang; seems I have a few Phys. Ed. classes to make up. See you all at the hospital. Don't forget some fruit and candies.

COMPY'S CUTIES

by Edith Tinsian

"Fore!" The sophomore girls are getting an early start at golf. Under the direction of Compy and Judy Thurbon, our feminine Jay Herberts are becoming quite proficient at the sport. The real test of their skill came when they visited one of the local driving ranges.

Ruth reports that she and Lea had a lot of fun in Florida. Compy's Cuties are really travelling this spring. Tudy journeyed to Altoona with Mrs. Falkenhagen; Lucille and Edie went to Pittsburgh with Dr. Smith and the rest of their botany class; Jan, Doris, and Jill spend a week-end on the main campus. Later in the month, Bernie, Laz, and Sandy will attend the Reading Festival, also at the main campus.

Grapevine has it that SWORD is really Gallagher, the man who really gets around.

Sara finally found out that a feed mill isn't a home industry.

Doris has an old theme-song, "Wake Up, Little Suzie."

Jill, Bobbi, and Sara may quit exploring side roads. How did those little horses ever manage to pull that big, heavy Merc out of the mud?

Bobbi, Doris, and Jan walked to school one morning. Some people have all the energy.

Carole Lazarus, the mad scientist, is making a synthetic man in chem. lab.

Unbeknownst to Compy's Cuties, your reporter has taken a sort of poll, and these are some of the comments uttered by the Behrend girls this month. On golf: Judy, "Oh, I see you're affected by your environment, too." Laz, "Where'd my tee go?" Sandy, "Hit it against the wall and it will always come right back—well, almost always." Bernie, "We'd do better with basketballs." On Mike's convertible: Sara, "Just another of those campus rumors." (No, Sara, it's roamers.) Bernie, "Now I believe it." On transportation to school: Doris, "It costs me 30 cents to walk." Jill, "Three days without a flat!" On tennis: Compy, "Is that thing a tennis racket or a snowshoe?" Sara, "I could cut German and analyt to play."

Bowling Review

By Forrest Campbell

Due to the lack of interest, the intramural league competition is dwindling. On the brighter side, the inter-collegiate team has rolled up a very impressive record. In twenty-eight matches, the Behrend team headed by Richard Covatto has won twenty-five.

The members of the team are Dick (191) Covatto, Bob (152) Sokoloff, Tom (150) Zielinski, Bob (160) Pius, Frank (143) Olsoska, "Pablo" (140) Pawlak, and Sid (155) Wallace.

Coach Plans Inter-Collegiate Activities Here

An Activities Day will be held Saturday, April 26, under the direction of Coach Goodwin. The athletic competitions will begin around 10 a.m. and will continue throughout the day.

Altoona, New Castle, McKeesport, and Dubois have been invited to participate in both single and group sports which include softball, basketball, volleyball, ping-pong, bowling and tennis.

A light lunch will be served at noon and a dance is scheduled for the evening.

Absent-minded Professor

Not so absent-minded when you get right down to it. He remembered the most important item—the Coke! Yes, people will forgive you almost anything if you just remember to bring along their favorite sparkling drink—ice-cold Coca-Cola. Do have another, professor!
