Coach (Simon Legree) Goodwin has brought out the "torture" mats again for boys' Ph. Ed. classes. Roger Anderson has been seen working out on them in feverish preparation for the 1960 Olympics.

George Guriel, captain of one of the boys' intramural teams, has signed up no less than thirteen players. Hey, George, what are you going to do, use a three-platoon system?

I. M. Stinki, well known Behrend sports figure, has made a request that soap be put into the shower rooms.

A great loss was suffered on the sports scene when the "Four Horsemen" of Stull Hall, Fred "Fats" Monaco, Ron "B.O." Raymond, Frank "King" Hursen, and Dave "Wilt" Lord transferred to the main campus. Luckily, however, they left behind John "Bring Them Back Alive" Beatty.

A forecast: The "Organization" will try to regain some prestige in sports. It is rumored that they will challenge the girls to a softball game sometime this spring. Lots of luck, boys, you'll need it.

Mike Schuller of McKean, in action in the Behrend bowling league, looks as if he is concentrating on splattering the tenpins for a perfect 300 game.

SOCKO

By Linda Roth

When I appeared one morning in the latest campus fashion, bright bulky, wool hockey socks, I discovered my family members were not exactly connoisseurs of the "collegiate" look. My father adopted an indifferent attitude. Absorbed in mashing his shredded wheat into an edible form he apparently didn't observe the flashy footwear. I cleared my throat several times and gracefully waved my fashionable feet at eye level, but with no result. When he began analyzing the possibilities of snowfall before evening, my father's opinion on such a trivial subject as hockey socks seemed remote. Meanwhile, my brother, with typical masculine ego, assumed a stricken, "Oh what do we have here?" expression. Attempting to affect a "man of the world" air, he gazed haughtily at my feet. It soon became apparent that he did not consider my "horrible" socks material with which to begin a conversation, and since he was absorbed in hysterical laughter I turned to my mother. My mother, by far the most tolerant and interested of the three, stared at my new sportswear. Racking her brain for something nice to say about my socks, she continued to stare at my distorted reflection in the toaster. "They are quite—bright, aren't they?" was the only comment she would offer. Disgusted I turned away. The socks felt heavy and my feet were beginning to be uncomfortably hot in them, but they were "collegiate." As I exchanged them for my usual white, ankle-high socks I decided with a sigh that my family did not appreciate the "finer things of life."

Basketball Re-B-B-Bounds

Behrend Center's basketball team hold down the number three spot in the western Division of the Pennsylvania Junior College Athletic Association League. The league standings are:

1. Altoona
2. Johnstown
3. Erie
4. McKeesport
5. New Castle

The Basketball season is not over. February 13th and 20th our team will play non-league games with Edinboro. Let's get out and back them.

I saw Mike Eccles the other day, and he told me they got a new recruit for the Health Club this semester. He is Don Wells, a transfer student from Gannon. Now listen to this; Don is bench pressing 210 pounds!

Jack Smith was walking around with the first intramural trophy of the year last week. Congratulations to Jack and his teammates for winning the Touch Football Championship of 1958.

Boys' intramural basketball will be starting in the next couple of week. Let's go, fellows, and submit those teams to the "Coach."

Ice age

Lucky us . . . today is the modern ice age. Lots and lots of it in refrigerators ready to ice up the Coke. And what could be more delicious than frosty Coca-Cola . . . the real refreshment. With its cold crisp taste and lively lift it's always Coke for The Pause That Refreshes!

BE REALLY REFRESHED...HAVE A COKE!
