

Behrend Terra Firma

By The Third Sex?

Christensen Hall has become a haven for "fugitives from the law" . . . A certain opinion poll in the last edition of the Cub certainly produced unexpected results. Really, it was all in fun, boys! . . . Eleanor Sauers still insists that she'd like to date Ann Landers' problem boy . . . Don Nogay and John Lloyd had their speech class in hysterics with their "shave-and-a-haircut" demonstration . . . The dorm girls have been saddened by the death of Mamie, their white mouse. Did she really die of dehydration, girls? . . . Where does Bill Roberge spend his Tuesday nights?—studying? . . . It was Jukebox vs. Jazz in the lounge the other day—resulting in a victory for jazz and a migration of a table of bridge-players . . . Behrend's "Social Club" announces a drive for new members . . . Al Chikosky vows that milk is his favorite beverage with pizza. Another victory for Dr. Smith! . . . Don Shelly lives at Stull's, yet he goes to his home in Erie to eat every night. Does this prove to be very economical, Don? . . . All the joy was taken from Mr. Vigorito's day when he was compelled to give an "A" to everyone in his Econ. class . . . Bill Murray, is it really legitimate to find the answers in the book before volunteering in Poli. Sci.? . . . Jeanne Chambers seen "circulating" at the last record hop. . . Sun lamps are the current rage. "Blushing" examples are Jim Altmar, Debbie Gold, Bill Curtis, and Cindy Hawkins . . . Mr. Lane caught tearing out his hair after an unusually riotous rehearsal of "Junior Miss." Egor, if only you wouldn't start laughing! . . . Chuck Kulbacki's "sexy" gym trunks attracted much attention at one of the intramural basketball games . . . Donna Waskiewicz! What's this we hear about you being locked in the girl's locker room with a certain male? . . . Witt certainly is having his share of troubles. His car isn't running, but he is! From the LCB, that is . . . Ron Polak and Mike Maetz wage a wicked battle of words! They can usually be caught at their "sport" in the lounge after 5:00. . . Skimmed milk being seen on lunch trays of "weight-conscious" girls . . . Congratulations to Jeanne Garrett for receiving the trophy for Women's High Average of the bowling league last semester . . . Lee Wnuk literally "all shook up" after the Acctg. 2 hour exam . . . Therese Taccone proved herself to be a pinochle-shark, although she insists she played only once before. Is this true, Tom Guelcher and Pat Hagan? . . . Sally Simon is under strict orders to be home at the stroke of midnight . . . Say, Walt, what's the real reason behind those study sessions at Russ'? . . . We hear cute little Phyllis McLean has a secret heart-throb on campus. Come on now, Phyllis, you can tell us! . . . Wanted! Toothpicks for drooping eyelids on Saturday mornings . . . A gay weekend reported by Dixie and Ricky on their return from the main campus . . . Mrs. B.! What was that "gift" you wanted to give Verbanic on his birthday? . . . Famous quotations—Ike: "I'm a lover, not a thinker." Grace Rowland: "If only Kismet had been here, I could've aced that logic test." Phil Sterner: "I hate all women." Dan McLaughlin: "Who ever said BA was a snap curriculum?"

MESSAGE FROM GARCIA

My Dear Miss Gardner,

In reference to the article which appeared in the last issue of the NITTANY CUB. The article in which you ask the female population of this campus what they thought of the male population of the campus. You should have realized, you being a capable staff writer, this article would create an immense amount of ill-feeling between the two sexes on campus. You participate in a very small part, if any, of the social life of Behrend, yet you take it upon yourself to create an argument among the male and female population. Just because you have no love life, that doesn't mean you have to ruin everyone else's too. I think that the only way you can correct this wrong is by writing a public apology and having it printed in the next issue of the NITTANY CUB.

Thank you,
Anonymous

EASTER PLAY

(Continued from Page 1)

Mike Sporakowski are co-chairmen. Nick VanDamia, Gary Lyons, Fuzz Bevevino, Jack Suppa, Jim Stevens, John Bobango, Gilbert Nielsen, Lee Wnuk, and Don Friedman are the other supporting members.

The Faculty Wives and Women's Association will serve coffee immediately following the program. The attendance of all students is encouraged.

PAUSE FOR CONSIDERATION

By Bill Curtis

"We came to bury Behrend, not to praise it." This quotation, misused for the moment, seems to be the only philosophy of many students here on campus. Constant complaints are heard about the condition of the parking lot, the food in the cafeteria, and many other seemingly bothersome conditions. In the midst of all the complaining, the complimentary comments are not often heard. It would behoove us all, if the students, in the future, would make their appreciation known. In the hub-bub of studies and extra-curricular activities, we sometimes neglect to show our admiration to the administration, janitorial, and other staff members. If we would stop for a minute and think, it is believed there would be many recollections of kind considerations shown to us by the staff members here at Behrend.

If some of these events cannot be recalled momentarily, perhaps some of them should be mentioned. We can all certainly remember the numerous times that Gallagher or one of the older members of his staff has come to the aid of a Behrend student in distress on Gospel Hill. Gratitude should also be shown to the administration, secretarial staff, and faculty for the time they give in making schedule changes and solving other academic problems. The cafeteria staff also deserve a bit of praise for the many times they have gone above and beyond the call of duty, to give a sleepy student a late cup of coffee. Finally the generosity shown to us by Mr. Burnett; Mrs. Ring, and Mrs. Liliman must also be mentioned to make our list of consideration complete.

From now on, it would certainly be very scholarly indeed, if we as students, would step out of our way and give these people a very deserving note of thanks.

GET THE BEST!
WEBSTER'S

NEW WORLD DICTIONARY

of the American Language, College Edition

more entries (142,000)

more examples of usage

more idiomatic expressions

more and fuller etymologies

more and fuller synonymies

most up-to-date

Available at your college store

THE WORLD PUBLISHING COMPANY
Cleveland and New York

REPLY FOR GARCIA

My Dear Anonymous,

In answer to your anonymous letter concerning an article which appeared in the last issue of the NITTANY CUB.

First, I do not think I owe a public apology to the entire school over such a ridiculous and trivial matter. If I have offended you in any way, I will be only too glad to apologize to you, if you are able to gather enough courage to come to me in person and stand up for your convictions. Please don't let the idea, that it might be your type of personality that the girls interviewed were referring to, keep you from making yourself known.

Second, I did not and do not think that an immense amount of ill-feeling was created between the two sexes. The only one who has expressed any annoyance, to my knowledge, anonymous, is you.

Thirdly, as far as my participation in the social life at Behrend is concerned, I cannot help but think that what I do or don't do is my right, and only mine to regulate my activities as I see fit without receiving any criticism from a person who prefers to remain anonymous.

Fourth, in reference to my love life, which you consider to be none, I cannot help but laugh. If you will take the trouble to look in the back issue of the NITTANY CUB you will find a statement of my status quo in regards to dating. Also, I find it rather hard to believe that a person who is intelligent enough to be in college would interpret that article as an attempt on my part to run everyone else's love life. Don't be naive, anonymous, you are supposed to be an adult.

Last, your letter seemed to me to be more of a slam at me than at the article itself. If it is, and you have something more to say then have enough nerve to say it to me in person rather than in the manner you have chosen. Don't be a coward all your life.

You're welcome, Anonymous
Betsy Gardner