

Bombs Away!

Jeanne Chambers receives some tips on her foul-shooting from the new girls' physical education instructor, Mrs. Henry Goodwin.

★ SPORTSCOPE ★

Follow your Penn State football team to the Cotton Bowl. Tickets to any of the games may be purchased from Mr. Goodwin two weeks in advance of each game. Home game tickets are $4 and away games are $4.50. Transportation may be provided for the Holy Cross game and the other games if enough students are interested.

Schedule: Oct. 24—Illinois at Cleveland
Nov. 7—Syracuse at Penn State
Nov. 14—Holy Cross at Penn State
Nov. 21—Pitt at Pittsburgh
Nov. 31—West Virginia at West Virginia

This year there are five bowling teams plus a faculty team. The teams will have playoffs at regularly scheduled times, and this year's teams promise to provide much action.

Coach Goodwin has tentative plans for a varsity golf team. All interested boys are requested to see Mr. Goodwin.

Another newly organized sport on campus is the soccer team. They recently played their first game with Grove City College and lost by only one point. The score was four to three with Al Wnuck, a sophomore, scoring Behrend's three points.

Again this year, Mr. Goodwin is organizing a basketball team. Besides the regularly scheduled ten games, the team is to play two games with the Penn State Freshman team and two games with Edinboro State Teachers College. The following is the Basketball schedule for 1959-60. Clip it out so that you can follow your team to victory.

Nov. 20—8:00 P. M.—Jamestown vs. Behrend—Home.
Nov. 24—8:00 P. M.—McKeesport vs. Behrend—Home.
Dec. 4—8:00 P. M.—Behrend vs. McKeesport—Away.
Dec. 11—8:00 P. M.—Behrend vs. Jamestown—Away.
Dec. 16—8:00 P. M.—Behrend vs. Ashtabula—Away.

Jan. 9—2:00 P. M.—Behrend vs. Johnstown—Away.
Feb. 13—8:00 P. M.—Johnstown vs. Behrend—Home.

Meet Your Faculty

"... that will be ten times three children: Pamalee, four; around the gym." You may have heard this very thing, or you may have been the recipient of this order when you've been around the gym. It is actually the lightest punishment that the "Goodwins' Inc." could think of for late attendance.

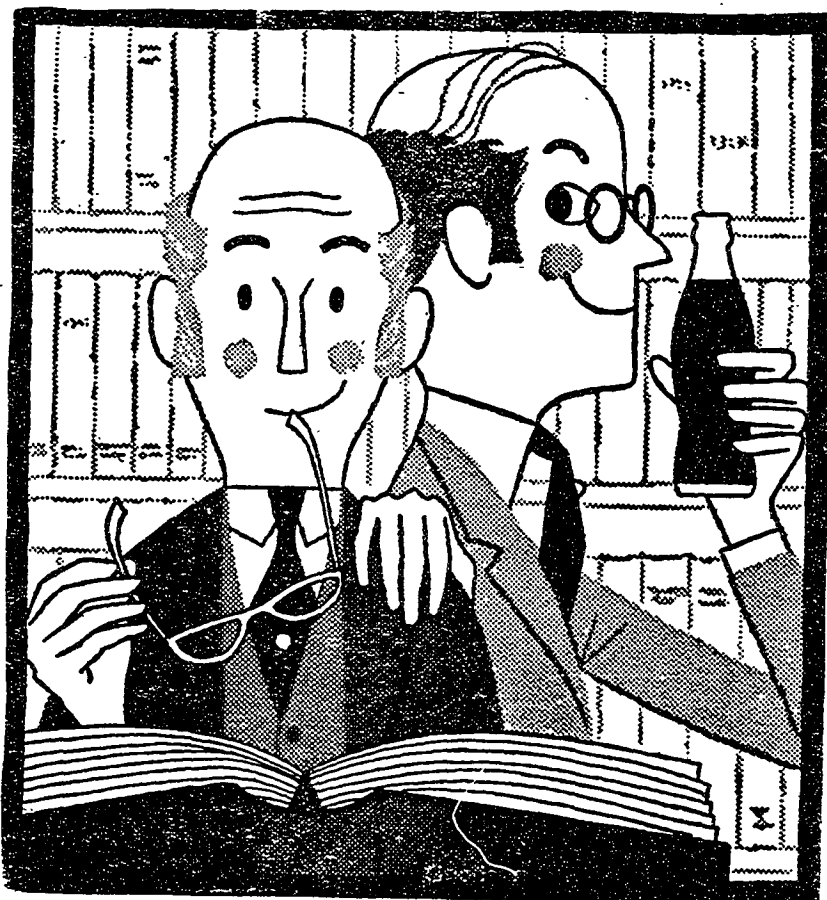

The female member of the Goodwins is our new girls' physical education coach. Before coming to Behrend, Mrs. Goodwin taught two years at State College.

Born in Bellfonte, Pa., only a stone's throw from Penn State, Mrs. Goodwin naturally attended the University. She admits that even if Penn State were a thousand miles away, she would have gone there. The Goodwins have three children: Pamalee, four; Stephen, three; and Kimberly Sue, one.

Sports of all kinds rate high with her, especially those that are teamed. When she can find enough bridge players, she is always willing to challenge them to a real battle. Her most interesting pastime occurs during the summer months, when she and the children accompany Mr. Goodwin to a crippled children's camp. There Mr. Goodwin has a job helping the children have as much fun as possible.

"I'm enjoying every minute of teaching at Behrend," says Mrs. Goodwin. She then concluded that her only real dislike was housework. I'm sure many of us girls can agree with her.

Mr. Funk & Mr. Wagnalls

"In re this matter of Good Taste," said Mr. Funk to his secretary, "take a definition."
"Taste: sensations . . . excited . . . by the . . . action of the gustatory nerves . . ."
"And add this," put in Mr. Wagnalls. "Taste: the faculty of . . . appreciating the beautiful . . ."
"That," said Mr. Funk, "wraps it up. Mr. Wagnalls, will you join me in a Coca-Cola?"
"So good in taste . . ."
"And . . . in such good taste!"
