NEWS BRIEFS

Saturday, November 14, over television station WSEE, from 1:30 to 2:00 p.m., the Pennsylvania State University will present a program, 15 minutes of which will be about Behrend Campus.

Mr. Kochel would like to call to the attention of the students the fact that they may visit any class offered on this campus, in which they are not presently enrolled, providing the instructor teaching that course gives his approval. This is an opportunity for many students to obtain knowledge about subjects in which they are interested but have not been able to schedule.

The Student Council has been invited to send representatives to the Pennsylvania Junior College Student Council Conference which will be held at Harcum Junior College on November 6 and 7. Bob Johnson and Jim Altman were appointed to represent Behrend Campus at the Confer-

Rigged Campus Elections Exposed By Student Government Body Advisors

With deep regret Advisors William Hover and Gordon Baker have made public the fact that Student Council elections held October 1 have been exposed as fraudulent! According to their report to Mr. Irvin Kochel, Behrend Campus director, a political machine, headed by "Spike" Sosnowski, reputedly stuffed the ballot box and extended threats to unsuspecting freshmen in order to gain seats on the Council.

Activities Calendar

For the month of November, the following activities are scheduled:

- 13 Friday—Record Hop
- 14 Saturday — Mid-Semester grades due
- 20 Saturday—Basketball - James-town (home) 8 p.m.
- 24 Tuesday — Basketball — McKeesport (home) 8 p.m.
- 24 Tuesday—Record Hop
- 24 Tuesday—Thanksgiving Recess begins at 5 p.m.
- 30 Monday—Thanksgiving Recess ends at 8:10 p.m.

Evidently the reason for such action was the desire to pocket the funds allocated to Council. All present members of the organization have admitted their connections with this illicit action with the exception of Rita Panameroff, who, on advice of her sister, is attempting to invoke the Fifth Amendment.

Suspensions, according to Mr. Baker, were aroused when "Big Bob" Johnson broke down during a recent word-association test in psychology class. It seems the word "money" put Johnson into semi-hysterics.

Further investigations by musically-minded Mr. Hover proved that "Jazzy" Raeder had pur-
