Time Will Tell

With the recent election of Student Council members, we are eagerly awaiting the fulfillment of their solemn campaign promises. It should not be long before it will be a pleasure to park in the newly smoothed, graveled, and three-laned parking lot. Students need not be late for classes because of the one-time "quagmires" located along the path between Erie Hall and Turnbull and will have complete assurance of their stability when ascending the stairs.

Deeply-engrossed bridge players are guaranteed a lunch when the fruit machine is placed in the lounge and those in the cafeteria will have access to a candy vendor. A new felt covering for the pool table will aid the accuracy of the players of the billiard game. Swimmers will be comfortably able to see what they are doing when a new heater and lighting system is placed in the bath house.

If more improvement of the campus could possibly be needed, any student will be able to ask for it through the suggestion box to be placed in Turnbull Hall.

At last our dreams will become a reality!

If You Ask My Opinion...

By Karen Blashford

The commencing of a new semester usually brings varied resolutions regarding studying. In order to illustrate this, I asked the following students if they thought more studying would be done this semester.

Maryanne Feduniak—What? Are you kidding me?

Bob Davis—Darn right! At least by me.

Nina Mazeako—I think it will depend on the number of probation notices given out.

Judy Mazzagotti—Yes, a lot of kids were disappointed with their grades last semester and will probably try to bring them up.

Andy Zawosky—Yeah, if people are pushed to it.

Sharon Haise—Everybody says there will be, but everybody knows there won't!

Sue Anderson—Not if the dorm girls keep talking during quiet hours!

Lee Ghery—Yes, the engineers especially.

Clayton Witherow—Ah! Maybe!

Betsy Spaulding—I'd like to think so, but the bridge game beckons.

Tom Wood—What! And ruin my love life!

Skip Knestrick—Study what?

Todd Cook—No, too busy with the bird society.

Doug Fritz—I bid 1 club.

Don Shelly—Pass!

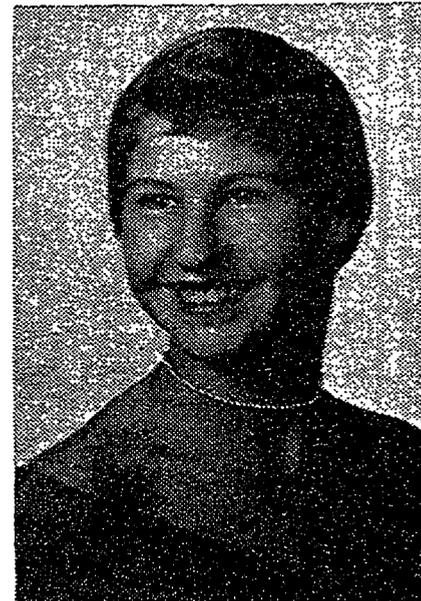

Personality Parade

By Diane Janowski

"Anybody for ping-pong?" This question can be heard at almost any time in Erie Hall from that amiable and intelligent Gail Anderson. Gail, as a math major and honor student in secondary education, commutes to Behrend from Erie.

This ambitious, 5'6", hazel-eyed Miss ranks swimming, sailing, horseback riding, and reading novels and biographies high on the list of her spare-time activities. Of course, Gail admits that parties are at the head of this list. To develop her mind further, Gail is now learning to play bridge.

When lounging or doing homework, she enjoys listening to swing or classical music. Also among her favorites are fried chicken, mashed potatoes, and Mike and Dan, her two dogs. She dislikes getting up in the morning and practical jokes.

Gail Anderson

Although Gail claims to like Behrend, one can't help but wonder why she lives for her week-end visits to Penn State.

GENERAL CLUBLICITY

DRAMATICS CLUB

The Dramatics Club, under the direction of Dean Lane, will present a three-act, arena-style play in the gymnasium. No specific date for the tryouts or performance has been set.

SPEECH GROUP

The Speech Group, headed by Mrs. Falkenhagen, is planning an Easter play, "Joseph of Arimathea". Members of the Speech 200 class will do the acting and staging.

Tryouts will be held soon for the Intercollegiate Reading Festival at State College. The Festival will be presented the last weekend in April.

RED CROSS

The Behrend Chapter of the Red Cross is joining the area Intercollegiate Red Cross group to present a variety show for Gannon-dale. Among the Behrend students participating are Sue Anderson, Tom Page, Ira Kelly, Carol Ripley, Beverly Britt, and Dick McCabe.

JAZZ CLUB

The new format of the Jazz Club includes two on-campus meetings a month. These sessions will consist of a business meeting and talks on the history of Jazz by Jack Raeder, plus the usual listening session. Any member missing two consecutive meetings will automatically be dropped from the club. All off-campus meetings will be open to members only.

CHOIR

The Behrend Choir, directed by Mr. Hover, rehearses every Thursday evening. The musical program for this semester includes as its serious work Brahms' "Alto Rhapsody" and, on the lighter side, Broadway show tunes and popular music.

The new building will be located to the rear of the tennis courts and will house science classrooms and laboratories. No change is to be made immediately in the water supply, but as enrollments increase, the demand will outstrip the present supply, and the new system will be constructed. The total cost of this phase of the program and the other two previously mentioned is estimated at $1,000,000. The entire sum will come from the Behrend trust fund.

The board of trustees at the Main Campus has also approved the site organization plan for the entire development. This is the layout for all buildings, roads, and athletic fields. Each phase must be approved separately as the program goes forward, but the first step is usually the most difficult. The program includes a library, dormitories, gym, athletic fields, several classroom buildings, faculty housing, and a student union building. Also included are numerous new roads and parking lots. Mr. Kochel roughly estimated the cost for the initial developments at $3,500,000 to $4,000,000.
