

Karen Maka and Jim Stevens display Mardi Gras costumes.

Behrend Terra Firma

By Nobru

Mr. Al "Moneybags" Wnuk resigned from his post as treasurer of the Student Council after finding out he could get more money by signing autographs. He is now a celebrity since his story was published in the Sunday Times . . . Congratulations to Francis "Fuzz" Bevevino and his wife, the former student Mary Kintz, on the birth of their son, John Robert . . . Why does Skip Knestrick hate the game of bridge so? Speaking of Skip—this boy is really a top-notch comedian! . . . "Goodwin Incorporated" is in full swing with gymnastic antics. I guess none of us ever knew we had so many muscles and in such strange places! . . . Mrs. Goodwin really reached the girls who thought they could get out of tumbling with doctors' excuses and injuries. They have to do exercises the whole period!

Who is the "Charlie" that Judi Caplan uses to entertain the dorm girls with? . . . Nancy Altman and Phyllis Rosenblatt certainly have warped senses of humor . . . Zoology students recently walked into class to see Dr. Smith greet them with "coracobrachialis". Ever since then they have been going around saluting each other in this Hitler-like style . . . Just ask some of the sophomores what is so funny about "beep, beep—zoom"!

We all want to welcome back to Behrend Campus two former students, Linda Anundson and Dick Scott . . . So Jim Stevens says he can make four basketball shots out of five. Sorry, Jim. It seems that Fuzz is willing to bet his hard-earned money to disprove you . . . Congratulations to Paul Zock upon breaking the 200 mark in bowling. . . . Chuck Kulbacki has an interesting schedule down at Penn State. One Speech class and five gym classes. I guess he has to get into condition for those weekend visits to Katie! . . . The Jazz Club is in full swing again, thank goodness.

Doug Campbell is losing faith in an old adage. He just can't kill two birds with one stone! . . . Todd Cook really knows how to handle girls. Just ask "Blackeye" Janowski . . . Left out from last issue—Jerry Rochin recently entertained at a spaghetti dinner. His guests included his Accounting 5 classmates, their dates, and Mr. Vigorito.

See you next issue. Until then, put a little fun into your life. Try gossiping!

LITERARY CLUB —

(Continued from Page 1)

sponsor a book review given by a guest speaker during some future common hour. Sometime in the Spring the club may take a trip to Penn State or Cleveland to see a play, and when it is possible, visits will be made to the Erie Playhouse. Spring plans also include a picnic. Mike Mulligan is chairman of the program and budget committee and those under him are Karen Maka, Janice Franke, and Gary Mootz.

The meetings will consist of book reviews given by members, discussions, readings, possibly guest speakers, and one act plays to be presented by the members, not necessarily for the public.

It has been suggested that one project of the club would be to publish a literary gazette which would come out three or four times a semester. The gazette would contain items of interest and news of a literary nature. Jack Raeder is chairman of the gazette committee and working with him are Diane Janowski and Anita McCallister.

Presently there are thirty members, and it is hoped that they and possibly others will continue to support and show an interest in the club.

MARDI GRAS —

(Continued from Page 1)

played and a part of the gym was reserved for dancing from 9 to 12. At the other end of the gym were booths. Games such as a wheel of chance and ring toss were offered, and refreshments were sold. The student nurses of Hamot Hospital and students from local high schools were invited to attend. Admission was free.

Mr. Louis Balmer and Mr. Joseph Vigorito were the advisors for the event which was sponsored by their advisees. Gail Anderson and Fuzz Bevevino were co-chairmen of

DEAN'S LIST —

(Continued from Page 1)

The following is a list of the students and their grade averages.

DEAN'S LIST

4.00	Herb Evans, Larry Johnson, Sandy Kain
3.82	Chester Grzebielski
3.81	Janice Franke, Rita Panameroff
3.75	Gaylord Sheldon
3.69	Leonard Andrzejowski
3.68	Mary Dietsch
3.67	Tom Thompson
3.65	Ralph Strong
3.63	Carl Anderson, Judy Benson, Lloyd Patterson
3.56	Milton Miner
3.50	Jim Reed
HONOR ROLL
3.47	Charles Flick
3.44	Bonnie Campbell, Kathy Cragun, Anita McCallister, Linda Williams
3.41	Carl Lucas
3.35	Dennis Kelly, Mike Simmons
3.31	Sandy Miller, Bill Springer
3.29	Bill McCall, Dennis Newton, David Smith
3.25	Gail Anderson, Mary Lloyd, Eddie Mandel
3.24	Todd Cook
3.21	Mike Zurkan
3.20	Bob Laedlein
3.19	Eleanor Moseman
3.18	Mike Loesch, Gordy Schmidt
3.17	Lee Tripp
3.07	Jim Swarm
3.06	Diane Baldwin, Ron Burkell, Don Detisch, Diane Janowski, Jim Knestrick, Jack Raeder.
3.00	Richard Froess, Jim McLeod, John Patalon, Duane Rockafellow, Mike Schuller.

the event. Chairmen of the various committees were John Lloyd, tickets and prizes; Bus Van Allen, publicity; Bob Johnson and Dave Kendall, booths; Gary Scalise, dance; Jim Stewart, refreshments; Judy Caplan, decorations; and Jack Fern and Joseph Mele, cleanup.

THE LAST WORD

A bright young student was trying to think of an original way to propose to his girl. Finally, he asked her:

"Could you be persuaded to climb my family tree?"

* * * *

Mother: "Are you the young man who jumped in the river and saved my son when he fell through the ice?"

Young Man: "Yes, ma'am."

Mother: "Well, where are his mittens?"

* * * *

Doug Fritz: "Answer — 'Cigarette'."

Clay Witherow: "Question—'What did Cigar do?'"

You in the back of the room. What was the date of the signing of the Magna Carta?"

"I dunno."

"You don't, eh? Well, let's try something else. Who was Bonny Prince Charlie?"

"I dunno."

"You don't. I assigned this stuff Friday. Where were you last night?"

"I was out."

"You were! How do ever expect to pass this course?"

"Wal, I don't know, mister. I just came in to fix the radiators."