

This Is It . . .

(Continued from page 2)

Hall, and be ready to recite them upon request.

12. Frosh males are not permitted to fraternize with frosh females, and vice-versa.
13. Freshmen must carry any sophomore's books when requested to do so.
14. Freshmen must say "hello" to all persons except those frosh of the opposite sex.
15. Each freshman must know the dean of his or her particular college.
16. Each freshman must have his or her student handbook autographed by any sophomore at the all-college dance tonight. The signed handbook must be carried during customs and be readily available for sophomore inspection.
17. Persons over 21 years of age are exempt from customs' regulations.
18. Each noon, a court will be held in Erie Hall to review offenses and award penalties.
19. Customs will last for two weeks—from Monday, September 24 to Saturday, October 5.

These regulations were created by a group of fair-minded and justice-loving sophomores who had nothing but the best interests of every freshman in mind.

Customs regulations will be effective from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday, beginning on Monday, September 24 and continuing until Saturday, October 6. Freshmen may terminate the customs' period after the first week, however, by organizing and presenting a variety show on Friday, September 28. If a majority of the sophomore class approves of the program, customs will be immediately concluded.

Those freshmen apprehended for disobeying customs' statutes will be arraigned before a court which will meet in Erie Hall at noon each day for the purpose of hearing such cases. Sophomores on the court will include:

Judge—Ray Morin

Asst. Judge—Terry Kennedy

Assoc. Judge—Larry Loftus

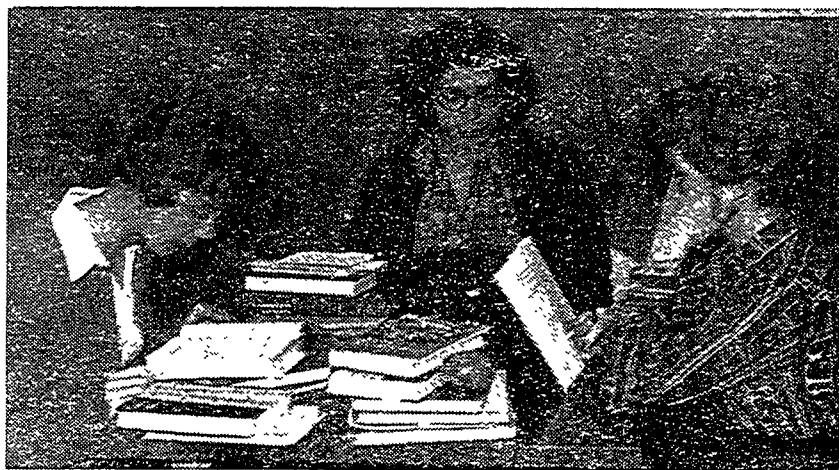

Pros. Atty.—Bruce Clark

Bailiff—Tom Irish

—as fair-minded and justice-loving a group as was ever seen on the Behrend Campus, we might add.

A jury chosen by these four officials will decide just how guilty the accused shall be. Penalties for each offense have already been decided upon, and will be dispensed by the judge upon the accused.

Freshmen are reminded to read over their customs' regulations carefully and obey them conscientiously.

This is a typical scene in the typical day of a typical Behrend student. Contrary to popular belief, this is not a posed picture.

Behrend Center 1961-62 in Review

(Freshmen: this article is designed to give you an accurate look at the many diversified activities that took place on the Behrend Campus last year. It is only an indication of all that you may expect to help formulate this coming year.)

BEHREND CAMPUS' annual homecoming was held on Saturday, October 7, with a soccer game with Grove City heading the list of the day's festivities. An hors d'oeuvre buffet was served to the visiting Alumni . . . A dance, with the crowning of a new queen, was the highlight of the evening . . . In a history-making soccer game, Behrend's Nittany Cubs came out on the short end of a 4-0 score last Saturday afternoon . . . the match was the first intercollegiate soccer game ever played on the local field . . . The annual "Hanging of the Greens" was held in the Wintergreen Gorge Chapel on November 30 . . . the candlelight service was followed by a social hour in the lounge . . . On November 12, 1961, Behrend initiated a "Parents' Day." The purpose of Parents' Day was to give the parents of the students a chance to meet the faculty and to tour our campus . . . the event . . . was termed a huge success with approximately 430 people in attendance . . . Coach Gallagher's Nittany Cubs take to the hardwoods sciously. Penalties for disobeying these rules are by no means severe, but can be, at times, rather ridiculous.

Also, there need be no concern of injury or damage to clothing, since this year's customs' program has been designed to eliminate such misfortunes.

Expenses of the program have likewise been reduced. Unlike previous years, this year's male freshmen are not required to buy and wear a black bow-tie. A suitable substitution has been made, however, so don't be alarmed.

this evening at Jamestown . . . Saturday, December 2, 1961, will go down in the sports logs as one of the grandest game days ever to be held on the Penn State Behrend Campus . . . Not only did the Nittany Cubs stretch their undefeated inter-campus tourney record to three straight, but the basketball Cubs came up with a hard fought first victory later on in the evening . . . Wonderland By Night will be the theme of the annual winter dance to be held at Erie Hall this Friday night . . . A chapter of the Keystone Society will be organized on Behrend Campus sometime in the immediate future. The Keystone Society is an organization of students interested and participating in student activities at the commonwealth campuses. The Society encourages academic pursuits and provides for the recognition of the student who is intelligent and finds time for some, or an, extra-curricular activities, as the all-around student . . . The Behrend Campus tourney players remained undefeated in the Western Division two weeks ago when they soundly trounced New Kensington Campus in bowling, chess, and table tennis . . . Behrend Campus' SGA will sponsor a Winter Carnival this Saturday, February 17. The Carnival will begin at one o'clock with outdoor festivities as skiing, tobogganing, ice skating, group singing and snow sculpturing . . . About five o'clock, a free supper for all attending the Carnival will be provided by the SGA . . . The one-act play, The Valiant, will be presented on Thursday, February 22 . . . Guest in the House, has been selected as the spring play. This 3-act suspense drama will have a cast of fourteen players . . . The Literary Club commenced its activities with a meeting on Thursday, January 25 . . . Manuscripts for Icarus, the Behrend Literary Club publication, are now being accepted. These can include short stories, essays, poems, or any such creative efforts on the parts of Behrend students . . . Mid-term below grades were sent out February 12 . . . Miss Schumacher has asked me to announce the recent acquisition of the Oxford English Dictionary for the Behrend Library . . . Elliot Ness and Company Raid Erie Hall Friday . . . it's Untouchables' Night . . . included in the program are a variety show, gambling, and a floor show! Untouchables' Night marks the first program to be presented by Circle K . . . sponsored by the local Kiwanis . . . Prepare yourselves for the biggest series of social events ever to hit the Behrend Campus . . . The Prom will begin at eight in the evening, and will last until the wee hours of Saturday morning . . . Later on in the day . . . Behrend Campus' Spring Carnival will begin . . . Starting off the festivities will be a doubleheader with Jamestown . . . everyone will don their bathing suits or grass skirts and head for our heated swimming pool . . . The Hamot Nurses . . . will serve their Caucasian delicacies donned in native costumes . . . Fifteen Student's Make Dean's List . . . Behrend Campus among those who entertained at Erie Orphanage . . . The immortal saga of agony on Calvary was a theme of the Behrend Campus annual Easter production last Sunday . . . the one-act play The Terrible Meek took just under one hour to perform . . . The Prom . . . A Night with Neptune . . . had an underwater theme with fish and sea horses swimming above the couples' heads . . . The eagerly awaited date for the dedication of the new building has been set for Sunday, October 21, 1962 . . . Behrend Players Score a Hit . . . the first dramatic performance in years on the Behrend Campus . . . Saturday at Glenwood the Cubs wrapped up their season with a 9 to 7 shellacking of Jamestown Community College . . . The Behrend Campus will need a trophy case in the new building next year. On Saturday, May 13, the Behrend delegation to the OSGA conference at State College was presented two magnificent gold trophies representing Behrend Commonwealth Campus supremacy in chess and table tennis . . . The Behrend yearbook, Bits of Behrend, is expected to be made available to the student body sometime in the summer . . . (The foregoing statements have been quotations selected from various issues of the Nittany Cub, the student newspaper, during the school year.) D.C.