

EDITORIAL

SGA elections are over and Bob Michaels is our new president. And this, after he told us that he felt the real (emphasis his) Behrend was represented by the Orientation Week activities--pool parties, nickiodeon nights, and so on. I, in my profound ignorance, always thought college was libraries, discussions in the lounge, and professors. Oh well, let's all drink a tall, cool beer to the real cool Behrend and best of luck to all the presidents at Behrend next year.

Practically all of the major magazines in America have had at some time in the past few months the words "God Is Dead" sprawled across their covers. Such a statement is sensational enough to attract readers but, from my experiences, the articles on this subject have been extremely superficial. Even highly regarded magazines such as Time and Newsweek are guilty of this type of journalistic sensationalism.

STUDENTS OF BEHREND

We must learn to graciously accept defeat as well as victory. This is often a difficult task, especially in an election as close as the SGA presidential election.

I am grateful to all the people who worked with me on my campaign, and especially to all those who placed their confidence in me by voting for me. I would like to thank Bob Petit, Ruth Brown, Gae Baker, Kyle Yoder, Jon Lee, and Jeff DeWalt for their invaluable help during my campaign.

I would like to take this opportunity to assure you that there is no animosity between Bob Michaels and myself, as a matter of fact, we are good friends. The rivalry during the campaign was friendly and will lead to a unified SGA next year.

Rob and I have already started making plans to make next year's SGA the best group of student leaders that Behrend has ever seen.

Jeff Disend

Dear Mr. Michael,

I feel that we have both benefitted from the competition in the past election. I believe that we can, with the help of the other carry-over students, make Behrend the best Commonwealth Campus in the State.

We both realized, even before we decided to run for President, that there would be a lot of work involved. I'm ready to roll up my sleeves and get started. Working together, we can give our voters what they bargained for.

Jeff Disend

Dear Faculty and Student:

It is with great pleasure that I accept the position of SGA President for the 1966-67 academic year. I would like to thank all of those who aided my campaign in any way, especially the dormitory women. I would further like to extend my congratulations to my opponent, Jeffrey Disend. His ideas, which were exemplified throughout his campaign, can be incorporated with mine for a better Student Government and Behrend Campus.

Again, I want to thank you all for your fine support and spirit.

Gratefully yours,

Robert E. Michaels
