

and wrestling, and teaches Physical Education. His Alma Maters are Slippery Roch and University of Arizona, where he received his Master's Degree in Education. Onorato likes to hunt, but his busy schedule leaves little time for this.

J. Walter Sterling, Philosophy instructor with an M.A. from Penn State, enjoys reading, and "likes Behrend and Erie a whole lot." He is from Norfolk, Virginia.

Edward Suckle's home town is Philadelphia. Behrend? It's very nice." He received his M.A. in English from Penn State and enjoys writing.

Jerry Turner of Pitt enjoys doing "all sorts of things." He holds an M.A. in English, which he teaches here, and he likes Behrend very much. Turner's home town is Grove City.

Charles Yartz, who holds a Penn State B.S. in Industrial Engineering, plans to get his Masters next summer. Originally from Erie, Yartz likes Behrend and its students. His interests are skiing and sailing.

* * *

