

SPANISH FILM SATURDAY

"El Lazarello De Tormes," a grand prize winner at the Berlin Film Festival, will be the featured film in Erie Hall this Saturday. Taken from the celebrated novel Lazarello de Tormes (His Fortunes and Adversities), it chronicles the adventures of a 12-year-old urchin as he fights the war of wits and survival with the adult rogues he encounters.

A delightful short subject will also be shown. "The Critic," an Academy Award Winner, spoofs experimental and "arty" films by using abstract images accompanied by some hilarious off-screen comments by a supposedly irate and confused theatre patron.

J. Michali

FACULTY-STUDENT "KAFFEKLATCH"

Director Irvin Kochel will sponsor his first coffee hour of this term this Thursday, November 19. It will be held in the Memorial Room at 3:00 p.m.

This is the second such function of the current school year, the first having been held at the end of the Fall Term. All faculty members and students are invited to come and indulge in a little good conversation.

Mr. Kochel plans to vary the ~~time~~ of the meeting so that at future sessions more students will be able to attend.

This is an excellent opportunity for students to get to know their faculty members on an informal basis.

17 Lions Win Soccer Letters

Varsity letters have been presented to 17 members of Penn State's soccer squad for the past season.

They are Sam Bailey, Haverford; John Mastil, Bill Snyder, Dave Stock, Bob Topham and Ron Weitz, all of Philadelphia; Bob Galvin, Willingboro, N.J.; Barry Giberman, Levittown; Gary Bello, Monessen; Dick Pierson and Harry Pitchok both of Pittsburgh; Vernon DeGrange, Dover; Dennis Kapp, Richland; Wayne Kline and Bon Rentschler, both of Robesonia; John Turchek, Fayette City; and Joe Correia, East~~on~~ Northport, N.Y.

PENN STATE BASKETBALL SHORTS

Largest crowd in Penn State basketball history is the 8100 which saw the Nittany Lions nip Syracuse, 80-79, Feb. 28, 1966.

Bill Stansfield, standout 6-8 sophomore center on Penn State's basketball team, averaged 25.5 points per game at Riviera Beach (Florida) High School.

Most basketball victories in a single season at Penn State is 20 --- by the 1951-52 team which finished 26-6 and by the 1964-65 team which was 20-4.

John "Mike" Travers, regular on Penn State's freshmen basketball team, is the son of John Travers, veteran sports reporter for the Harrisburg (Pa.) Patriot-News.

Four players --- Jesse Arnelle, Carver Clinton, Mark DuMars and Bob Weiss --- scored more than 1000 points in their Penn State basketball careers.