

Ⓚ CORRAL

by Tom Lackovic

Due to the spring-like weather on January 28, SKI HOLIDAY has been temporarily postponed. However, arrangements are presently being made to reset the social event, possible March 4 if Old Man Winter lets us! Those who have given any payment towards SKI HOLIDAY will be reimbursed accordingly, unless they intend to hold their payment towards the re-scheduled date. Meanwhile, there's another winter extravaganza brewing.

It's here--THE FIFTEENTH ANNUAL WINTER CARNIVAL WEEKEND--the fun festival of winter sports on February 10, 11, and 12. Just what happens during WINTER CARNIVAL WEEKEND? Well, here is the agenda of scheduled events: The "winter weekend" begins Friday night with a toboggan party followed by a picnic of sizzling goodies--hot cocoa, roasted marshmallows, and barbecued hot dogs. The best part about this deal is that you can eat all you want without a fee. Sounds good, huh fellas? A bonfire will be blazin' for you Cubs also.

Saturday's events commence with Sno-Sculpture and Sno-Ball Rolling contests in the morning. This is your opportunity to let your mind run free. Build anything imaginable...an igloo, and Egyptian pyramid, a submarine, a towering totem pole. You name it, then build it. Members of the faculty and administration will be the judges for the cash awards. If Sno-Sculpture is not your "cultural bug" then Sno-Ball Rolling is down your alley. Participants will try to roll the largest snowball within a certain time element. These winners will receive "special" awards.

(Hint: gloves, thermal underwear...) All awards will be presented at the dance that evening. Also, for your frolicsom fancies, there will be several snowmobiles available to rent at a reasonable rate; ten cents a minute.

Saturday afternoon Behrend hosts Altoona in a wrestling match starting at 1:30 and is followed by the Behrend-Altoona basketball game at 3:00 P.M. in Erie Hall. The activities are highlighted by a semi-formal dance in the evening with the crowning of the Winter Carnival Queen. Dancing will be from 8:30 to 12:00 to the sentimental moods of THE CARMELS. Admission is only $3.50 per couple.

No activities are planned for Sunday afternoon so that students can be allotted some time towards studies. However, WINTER CARNIVAL WEEKEND comes to a close Sunday evening with ice skating either at the Glerwood Ice Rink or at the tennis court behind the O. B. Building, depending on the temperatures that day.

Well, there you have it--a recipe for a fun festival of winter sports at Behrend Campus. So, before it's too late, make a date for that date, young mate! Meanwhile, the various committees will be working for the thrills, chills, and spills of WINTER CARNIVAL WEEKEND. The appointed committee chairmen are: Mic Kuban, decorations; Tom Lackovic, advertising; and Brad Rydan, entertainment.