...happens to fall in the wrong place at reg-istration?

These are the gambles we have to face, and we would like to know why. These are very similar to the problems that were encountered last year. Couldn't this be foreseen, especially since there are many more students this year? Mirgales would be too much to expect since this is a small campus, but that doesn't mean no one can investigate these problems, does it?

A Grievance from Some Students and Faculty.
