

OFF THE RECORD

An election was held this spring to provide the Student Government Association of Behrend Campus with new officials and enough members to carry the association through the summer and the fast paced first few weeks of school. The elected officers are Arnie Caldwell, President of the student body; Gary Lackovic, Chairman of the SGA; and Jim Burger, Treasurer. The three representatives chosen are Deanne Balmer, Paula Ignasiak, and Claudia White.

YOUR S. G. A.

Arnie Caldwell is a political science major, the Northwest Pennsylvania Regional Co-ordinator for the OSGA, and the President of the student body. These commitments occupy nearly all of his limited spare time.

Jim Burger, aside from his position as SGA Treasurer, is an active member of the Cultural Committee which sponsors films, lectures, and art shows. He is in charge of lectures. Also, he is active in the Behrend Players, Delta Psi Omega, and the soccer team. He is majoring in psychology.

Acting SGA Chairman Gary Lackovic, majoring in business administration, also holds the Vice-presidential post in the Behrend Booster Club. He presides at SGA meetings and will be running for re-election. Gary is a member of the Activities committee and the Keystone Society.

Deanne Balmer has lived here at Behrend all of her life. A member of the Behrend Players, Delta Psi Omega and the Keystone Society, she is also a frequent contributor to the Cub.

Claudia White too is a member of the thespian troupe and was in charge of the Choice '68 elections sponsored nationally by Time Magazine. She is also a cheerleader.

In addition to SGA Paula Ignasiak maintains membership in the Behrend Players and Delta Psi Omega.
