

• Evil Abounds - 10/31

Dissatisfied with yourself? Look- come out. Show everyone just what the ing for someone else to be? Rejoice "other you" is like.
Malcontents; stand up and cheer, hero But why do it alone, or out in a worshippers; let out a sigh of relief, street full of noisy little kids? Be-you who want to be someone else. The sides, you're too big to go trick-oronly time of the year when you can "put treating. Let the batman in you shine on the dog" with finesse is at hand. at the Costume Ball on the evening of Halloween, which you might only All Saints Day. consider a night set aside for tiny This activity could be a great recherubs to plunder your neighborhood, lief to that strain on your ego, and it is indeed just the chance that you've ought to prove quite revealing. It been waiting for. When else can you should be interesting to find out how dress, act, walk and talk like just the many Behrendites wish they were Racquel person or thing you want to be, and get Welsh or Steve McQueen. away with it?

Consider this Halloween your big you get something more than just indichance. Be anyone you want, from Dean gestion..Come to the Circle K's Costume Lane to Mata Hari. Repressed extro- Ball on November 1, and let your secret verts, antagonists, policemen and Bona- self have his night. parte Napoleans, Halloween is your night. Let the Walter Mitty in you

Debbi Cole

MUSIC by Syron Grace and the Tuesday Blues

