WASHINGTON & SGA

AN OCTOBER 25, 1968 CONVERSATION

... which sets up a
... allow and then breaks
... position to make any-
... question is the fiscal
... which states that organ-
... spending their budgets are re... sponsible for the money. Perhaps they ... should have added, "with the exception of ... SGA", since SGA has broken the rule by over-
... spending their budget. Instead of accepting ... this fact, they are planning to call back
... the budgets of other campus organizations
... to plug up the hole in their pocket.

All of the money given to the clubs is done so by the SGA budget committee and then approved by SGA. The preliminary budget compiled by this committee and accepted by SGA was also accepted by the clubs as their working budget. Yet the committee must call back the budgets if SGA so dictates.

Some note worthy facts remain. NUMBER ONE: They have already cut club money in comparison to last year. For example, the CUB is working on 3/4 of last year's allotment. NUMBER TWO THRU N: Other clubs such as the Booster Club and the Yearbook, both of which nearly triple their allotment each year, lost the money they had left last year to pay SGA bills during the summer.
All of these organizations are tired of seeing this money shuffle each year.

So you see, SGA...
Even though the money is yours to distribute as you see fit, remember this: you have overspent your budget, so why don't you swallow your pride and get out your tin cans like you tell it. After all, taking back our money won't make you heroes for not creating a national debt on the Behrend Campus.

YOU: Excuse me please,
I don't agree....

ME: But can't you see?
There's the war,
And the poor,
Escalation,
Demobilization,
Police brutality,
Middle-class morality,
A dying Church,
Some people called Birch,
The NAACP....

YOU: O.K. you're right
I see.

ME: And there's you....
And there's me....

YOU: Now wait a minute man,
I DON'T AGREE!!!

ME: GODAMMIT---
Can't you see?
There's gotta be you
And there's gotta be me

There's gotta be us
There's gotta be free.
