FLAKES

Two weeks before Thanksgiving Day arrived, Sue Snowflake came to town to stay a while. The frosty air just seemed to be alive, And wooly hats and gloves became the style.

The children all went running out to play. My sister and my brother joined the throng. Although I had to much to do that day, I truly wished that I could go along.

But at the ripe old age of seventeen I have a few responsibilities, And since I had yet left my room to clean, My conscience would not let me go at ease.

Besides, at seventeen you're s'posed to be something that they call sophisticated. I should have stayed inside with Dignity, Watching children as they played, elated.

So for a while I kept myself at home, But somehow Mirth and Gladness won the row. As soon as I had finished up this poem, One could have found me rolling in the snow.

DOING SOMEBODY'S DIRTY WORK FOR SOMEONE ELSE'S BENEFIT

Seventy-five new freshmen and 75 students transferring with advanced standing, of which 15 will transfer from Behrend, have been admitted by the university to the University Park campus for the Winter Term, beginning on January 6. These figures are considerably under that of a year ago when nearly 350 students were admitted.

The reduced number of admissions are the results of an attempt to hold the main campus enrollment as close as possible to 25,000.

Last Thursday evening the Neupojokers and the Amateurs defeated their opponents to post a three way tie for first place. The Neupojokers, Haf and Haf, and Amateurs now hold 3-1 cards, while Behrend Broads are in second place with a 2-2 standing, Tricky Glickies hold third with a 1-3 slate and Susie's Sweethearts (0-4) are in last place.

Intramurals

This Thursday, November 14 in Erie Hall at 7:00p.m. the Amateurs will play the Tricky Glickies on Court 1 and the Neupojokers meet the Haf and Haf on Court 2. At 8:00 the Behrend Broads will be matched against Susie's Sweethearts.

The final play-offs of these games will be held Friday November 22. The time and opponents will be announced.

KEYSTONE

Doug Brower, Denise Bufalari, Tom Decker, Art Hannah, Mike Kowalczyk, Ron May, Bill Trimble, Shirl Vasbinder, Gregg Wright and Pat Gerity have been selected as inductees of Keystone during the Fall Term.

Inductions were conducted last Wednesday, November 20, at six o'clock p.m., in the Seminar Room of the Reed Building.

BEHREND PLAYERS

The Behrend Players transformed the dining hall of the RUB into a coffee house Friday and received a good response from the student body. Decorated screens were set up, and graffiti-covered tablecloths and candles completed the scene.

Entertainment was provided by the Peer Group, who will hold a full concert in January.

According to Pat Trimble, President of the Players "We will allow the students to decide whether the coffee house will be held on a regular basis."

817 STATE ST.

Enraptured, I allowed my senses to go astray in a most memorable romance with the woods. Ah, but the blanket above and the bedding below the remaining remnants of a verdurous realm. And on I went. Before me stood a tall and dark masterpiece incapable of realizing the coming Spring. Its day of mirth is no longer; so seemingly expression-
