

EDITORIAL OPINION

"...LET'S SIT DOWN
AND TALK AND TRUST EACH OTHER

STUDENT AFFAIRS OFFICE

BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE

BEHREND IS READY FOR CHANGE;
BEHREND IS HUNGRY FOR CHANGE; BEH-
REND IS TENSELY AWAITING CHANGE..

When ??? Now!!!

Why? Well, it seems there were many problems aired Sunday night that have been heard before. Oh yes, and they have also been listened to before. But never before have the students, faculty and administrators in such an interested multitude met face to face on any one of the problems.

NEVERTHELESS, THEY ARE FAMILIAR PROBLEMS. WE HAVE SEEN THEM SITTING IN FOLDERS. ON DESKS AND IN WASTEPAPER BASKETS, WITH GOOD INTENTION, OF COURSE.

Behrend is a small tin school. We are not Berkley. We are not Columbia. Our problems are not related. The fact remains, however, that we also have problems no matter how menial they may seem compared to theirs. Most authorities have agreed the reason that student disruption occurred was due to the putting off of their problems.

IT IS NOT TOO LATE. IT IS PERHAPS UNIQUE OR PERHAPS FORTUNATE THAT STUDENTS, FACULTY, AND ADMINISTRATORS ARE WILLING TO WORK THINGS OUT BEFORE IT IS.

