

TOW-ROPE OR NOOSE?

What's the answer? Better yet, what's the question? We went to the debate Tuesday prepared to argue censorship, control, and constitutional rights. Instead, Arnie Caldwell led a one hour attack on the CUB'S financial status, Terry Davis accused us of "stealing" $300.00 from other campus organizations. In an appeal to these same clubs for support, Arnie said, "Three hundred dollars of your money went to someone you never gave it to. Who did give it to us?"

They then proposed a Board of Trustees to govern our financial transactions (and the appointment of our next editor and..?) But where was the guiding hand of SGA when we first walked into this economic swamp? Now they've thrown us a towrope—with a nose at the end

Letters...

Dear Editor,

The other day as I was walking through the woods of beautiful Behrend, I was accosted by a small, funny looking man who related to me the following tale. After some thorough brain-racking I have finally given up trying to figure out some hidden meaning and felt that you might be able to find some purpose.

"Once upon a time there was a beautiful maiden named Snow White who lived in a many roomed branch castle on the shores of a lake in a far-away land. on the top floor of this castle lived a semi beautiful wicked queen who occupied her leisure time by watching Snow White through one of the many long-range telescopes stationed at her window. (cont.p.3)

We exaggerate? Perhaps, but unlike SGA, we are only too erringly human. Too often, as we race from class, to lunch, to CUB office, to class, we are accosted on the sidewalks, in classrooms, and in the cafeteria by interested Behrendites. Armed with their Funk and Wagnalls, red pencils, and an English I Case Book of Rhetoric, they proceed to expound on the shoddy appearance, typographical errors, and infrequent publication of the CUB.

Indeed, ~~we~~ are grateful for this unasked for and freely given advice. Curious, though, that as deadlines draw near, the population of the CUB office drops from 30 to four or five.

We've begged, pleaded, invited. Now we DARE you to step off your soapboxes and smudge your little fingers with multilith ink. Maybe we can't solve all our problems, but you can solve some. If you try. Char Crotty

SIGNED COLUMNS REPRESENT THE VIEW OF THE AUTHOR ONLY, AND DO NOT ALWAYS REFLECT THE EDITORIAL POLICY OF THE CUB.

Editor-in-Chief: Concetta Rizzo
 Associate Editor: Denise Bufalari
 Managing Editors: Char Crotty,
 Randy Kinhead
 Feature Editor: Debi Cole
 Production Editor: Bill Lockhart
 Sports Editor: Dave Karotko
 Business Manager: Mike Maloney
 Circulation Manager: Sue Dahl
 Reporters: Carol Silverman, Mike Gangemi, Sue Christoph, Gary Griffin, Mike Wellejus, Kathy Valentine,
 Bill Sachse
 Typing, Art: Dave Shuttle