

SLEEP NOT

Saturday night will never be the same after the All-Nighter. Two hundred and fifty students jammed the RUB from eight o'clock Saturday evening to early Sunday morning.

From the cosmic scene of the "Zolla" the students were set for the mind-blowing thrillers-----The Tell-tale Heart, The Picture of Dorian Gray, and Village of the Damned.

Around midnight students congregated in the guest lounge which was transformed with wall-to-wall fluorescent posters, mobiles and accentuated by colored lights. Mr. Grove and Fred Rydbom gave readings from the subject of graveyard rats, dark castles and tragic fraternity initiations, students were given a demonstration in ESP by student Kathy Valentine.

The mood was transformed by the beginning of the Jammy and (50%) love-in. Mike Wellejus, Mike Gangemi, Met Fomich and Jim Hodas formed the instrumental quartet and Behrend's own interpretation of the Temptations (Sylvan Pomeranz, Pete Saunders, and Dominique Lambert) performed. The tempo was varied when Kim Kimberlin sang, Summertime. The evening was appropriately recapped when Carol Silverman and Mike Wellejus teamed to give the sounds of "Angel of the Morning" and "Be Sure to Wear a Flower in Your Hair."

Try-Out For J.B.

The Behrend Players will hold try-outs for their Spring production of J.B., the Pulitzer Prize winning play by Archibald MacLeish, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, March 3rd and 4th at 7:15 in the Carnegie House. All members of the student body are urged to read for a part or else sign up to work on some backstage crew. There are roles available for 7-10 men and for 10-23 women; there are also openings for a stage manager, assistant director, and assistant producer. J.B. will be presented on May 1, 16, and 17. Reading copies of the play are now on reserve in the library.

Call-backs, if necessary, will be held on March 5th.

ASSOCIATE DEGREE PETITION

A petition has been circulated by the SGA to insure graduation of associate degree students at Behrend. If you have not had an opportunity to sign it, you may do so in the SGA office.
