Tied for 11th place with Marvin Gaye and Andy Williams, was DOM LAMBERTI [a local talent], with 2.5% of the votes. And to BOB GOLICK [another local talent], who sings in the shower, went 17th place with 1.7% of the votes.

After the interview I attended the performances, it was an excellent display of talent. Hangauer and Mrs. Sublett are brilliant dancers and are entirely devoted to educating young people in the field of ballet. Throughout the interview, I got the impression that they are very warm and friendly people, even though they have tremendous ability and experience.
