

WHAT'S HAPPENING

Richard and Jaclyn Carradine arr presenting an evening of great theater tomorrow at 8:00 P.M. in the RUB Lecture Hall.

This famous duo (Richard is the son of actor John Carradine) will perform a piece entitled "Dear Liar" which consists of excerpts of love letters between George Bernare Shaw and Mrs. Patrick Campbell.

There will be no admission charge for this presentation of the Program Committee.

The Dorm Lounge will be the scene of Mr. Robert MacDonald's talk on his experiences while sailing on the Great Lakes. The Behrend Bookstore Manager's talk will be held on Thursday May 8 during Common Hour.

College Day, sponsored by Project Reach-Out will take place Saturday, May 10.

KNOLF will be driving everyone through the walls Saturday May 10, 1969 from 8:00-12:00 P.M., at Erie Hall with their unbelievable music. In addition to KNOLF the JAMS will be on hand to add soul to the four hour spree. Posters will be sold, Refreshments will be sold, and there will be a light show not unlike euphoria.

subsequently to an injunction by the Centre County court prohibiting disruptive action. The poll, which revealed that more than 83 per cent were opposed to while 13.4 per cent did not object to it, also found 16.5 per cent agreeing that the demands made are non-negotiable. Nearly 74 per cent objected to the "non-negotiable" character of the demands.

Throughout the replies, which five of the nine demands made, Schwartz said he could detect a strong feeling of the students that realistic changes should be sought through established channels rather than by the making of "non-negotiable demands. Students want discussion of the proposed changes he said.
