Here's Behrend on the defensive against Alliance in Wednesday's contest. We won 3-2 in overtime play.

Blue & White Notes

NITTANY LION NOTES

Penn State has played before three straight sellout crowds this season and is certain of adding three more to the streak. This Saturday's game with West Virginia has been sold out since July; next week's at Syracuse is sold out and the Oct. 25th game against Ohio University became a sellout last week.

The Nittany Lions came out of the Kansas State game without any further injuries and with the return to action of halfbacks Charlie Pittman and Gary Deuel should be at 100 percent physicality against West Virginia.

Pittman gained 127 yards in 25 carries last year against the Mountaineers and scored a touchdown.

All-American linebacker Denny Onkotz was named Associated Press lineman of the week after last season's West Virginia game. He intercepted two passes—one to stop a serious Mountaineer threat and returned the other nine yards for a touchdown.

SPORTS SHORTIES

It's that time of the year, baseball is reaching a dramatic climax with its world series . . . also, divisional playoffs are an added feature . . . Meanwhile, football is moving in, as fans cheer for their favorite professional and college team . . . Penn State (our favorite!) built a 17 point lead and held on to a 17-14 win over the inspired and 19th-ranked Kansas State . . . The Nittany Lions are 3-0 and shooting for their second 11-0 season . . . The Pitt-Duke game must have been fabulous with Pitt winning 14-12 . . . In the pro leagues, the NFL boasts two undefeated teams, the Cowboys and the Rams . . . There were four last week, but Cleveland and Green Bay lost . . . Hey Colt fans, what about that 52-14 loss to Minnesota last week . . . Cincinnati was the surprise in the AFL, but dropped to a 3-1 record after losing to San Diego . . . winless Miami tied unbeaten Oakland . . . The Mets could win the series . . . Remember Boston in 1967? . . . Also, Baltimore the East-AL winner might follow in the steps of the Colts (Lost to N.Y. Jets 16-7 in Super Bowl) and Bullets (Lost to N.Y. Knicks in NBA east Semi-finals.) . . . never fear, Baltimore is in line for a hockey franchise . . . back to baseball, The well balanced Braves beat four other clubs to have the right to lose to the Mets . . . The Reds scored 798 runs behind six potent hitters, but their pitchers gave up almost as many runs . . . The Twins finally pulled away from Oakland during August . . . Expansionist Kansas City finished ahead of Chicago . . . A rain out terminated the chances for the Yankee's 500 season and Cleveland's 100th loss . . . The N.L. East had heart-broken Chicagon and disappointed St. Louis be with my World Series winner . . . The Mets . . . They have Tom Seaver . . . and a Super Bowl forecast . . . The Rams over the Oakland Raiders by a touchdown.

Booters Smash Alliance

The Behrend Soccer team opened the season, Wednesday, in fine style by downing Alliance 3-2.

The match was forced into overtime with the score deadlocked 2-2 at the end of regulation time. At this point a determined Behrend took control to produce a victory. With four minutes gone in the first overtime period full-back Bill Walker 'threaded the needle' with a pass to Jim Frye, at inside center, who headed the ball in for the winning goal.

The first quarter showed an evenly played match with Alliance attempting six shot on goals and Behrend eight, including three corner kicks. Tom Acri, Behrend center back, consistently stymied the opponents with his fine defensive play throughout the game.

In the second quarter Alliance produced two goals, the second goal coming on a free kick, to grab a 2-0 lead. Behrend quickly retaliated with a goal by left half,

Tom Giles, on an assist by Harry Doe.

The second half showed Alliance playing a conservative game to maintain the lead. But with nine minutes remaining in the half, the visitors hopes were smothered by Bob Giles and his second goal of the day.

Tuesday, October 28, the Cubs will put their clean slate on the line when they travel to Bradford-Pitt.

Sophs Cop Win

The sophomores defeated the freshmen in football by the score of 20-0. The highlight of the game was Tom Albrech's 70 yard touchdown after a great sweep to the right side of the sophomores.

Other touchdowns were scored by Dan Curtis and Mark Fleishauer. Dick Habay threw two extra point passes, one to Bill Thomas and the other to Dan Curtis, to make the final score 20-0.

The Behrend Soccer Team has Dom Lamberti to blame for their individual names not being printed here. BETTER WATCH OUT DOM!
