Grapplers Winless In Two Matches

While the basketball team has been having their problems, Coach Ed Onaroto has been having a different kind of problem. After the fall term he has lost six wrestlers by transfer: three in the upper weights, two in the lower weights, and one inbetween. As a result of this there are only 9 starters on the wrestling team. He currently has no wrestlers in the 191 lb. and heavyweight classes as well as in the 118 lb. class unless Bill Groner can get his weight down.

However three other wrestlers have been added to the squad, Bill Bower (Freshman), Dennis McDougal (Sophomore) last year's 177 pounder, and Paul Vaughn, a sophomore letter winner who is returning from a knee injury.

Over vacation, the Behrend grapplers have had two dull meets, both defeats. The first was against Cuyahoga, 26-11. In this match Bill Groner lost his first match of his college duel meets by a score of 5-1. The only winners for the Cubs were Joe Hake at 150 lb., 7-3 and Tom Garson at 158 lb., 13-5. The second match was a loss to Lorain County CC, 29-11. The winners for Behrend were Groner at 126, 5-0 over Zopko and Hake over Tokan at 150, 6-2.

The next home meet will be on Saturday, January 17 at 2:00 P. M. against the Penn State Frosh. The team needs your support.

Cubs Outpoint Fredonia Frosh

During the Christmas vacation Coach Marty Malkin's basketball team played three games, dropping two of them. The first of this three games series was against Fredonia State Frosh on Dec. 13 when the Cubs outscored them 78-57. Two days later the Behrend team took a trip to Buffalo and lost to Bryant-Stratton by a score of 90-72.

The last of these games came on the 17th of December when McKeesport handed the Cubs a tough 73-72 defeat. Heading the list pointwise were Doug Zimmerman with 20 and Mike Hook with 18. This was Hook's best game so far this season and Coach Malkin believes that Mike will soon prove to be a great help to the team.

Overall, Malkin believes that his team needs work on the offensive side. Currently the Cubs are shooting a low 42% from the field and a less than average 66% from the foul line. The three top scorers are Doug Zimmermann, Gary Boroway, and Mike Hook with average points per game of 24, 16.5, and 10.4 respectively. Besides offense problems, Malkin also has trouble with his defense. The team has a pretty good size with at least three good rebounders over the six foot mark, but they haven't been able to get in a good position to recover the ball. The Cubs definitely had an advantage over the McKeesport team in height but somehow they out rebounded the Cubs 45-32. However, Coach Malkin is still very optimistic about the season. Although his current record is 2-5, he believes that we will definitely have a winning season.

Wednesday night the Cubs played Jamestown and due to the time of publication, the CUB was not able to publish the results.

The next home game will be on Saturday, Jan. 10 at 8:00 P. M. against McKeesport again. The Cubs plan to get revenge for their defeat over vacation. How about some student support?
