Cubs Win Regional Trophy In Tournament At U. P.

Coach Marty Malkin, in his first year as coach of the Behrend Basketball team, has succeeded in giving the Campus another winning season. After winning 12 games in a row, the team went down to University Park last weekend and nonchalantly "smoked" two more teams to win the regional trophy for the Commonwealth Campus League.

The first game, against Schuylkill was a slow game. Neither team was hitting very well, and the Cubs were only winning by 2 points at halftime. Although our zone-press defense wasn't effective at all, the Cubs were bigger and stronger and they coasted to an 89-77 victory. Shooting came out to 36% (field goals) and 68% (foul line) and the high scorers were Doug Zimmerman—32 and Gary Boroway—26, Bob Schweitzer—10 and Dan Porath—10.

The championship game was quite a different story. Ogontz was expecting the Cubs to play the usual zone-press defense which they have been using throughout the season, but the Cubs pulled a switch and decided to start with a man-to-man defense, after not using it for two months. It worked so well that the Cubs stuck to it for the whole game and blew Ogontz off the court 107-78. The Cubs ran and broke very well, and completely dominated the game. Shooting ended up with Doug Zimmerman—36, Gary Boroway—31, Dan Porath—15, and Mike Hook—12. Percentage from the field was 52% and from the line it was 73%. The Cubs also dominated the boards with the help of some hot action by Boroway (18 rebounds) Zimmerman (13), and Schweitzer (12).

RECAP OF THE SEASON

The 1969-70 basketball season started out with a 2-5 record before the Christmas vacation. It was a slow start due to the fact that the team needed time to adjust to a new coach and to the other team members. After the vacation "the ball began to roll." The team members got to know each other better and learned how to play as a team. It played off very well, for they ended with a 16-6 record with a 14 game winning streak, as well as winning the Regional Basketball Tournament for Commonwealth Campuses. A big factor involved in this winning streak was that most of the wins were at home while the losses were all on the road. The home court gave the Cubs the confidence and incentive to use all their ability and to win. Other accomplishments were the breaking of 7 records by Doug Zimmerman as well as several other second and third place accomplishments by Bob Schweitzer and Mike Hook.

In conclusion, as Sports Editor of the Nittany Cub, I would like to congratulate Coach Malkin and most important of all, the team members who gave Behrend another winning season. They did an outstanding job and took the trophy home. I mean Brought the Trophy Home.

Jerry West is enjoying one of his finest seasons ever . . . The Laker star has played in 63 of his teams 69 games, scoring at a 31.1 clip, best in the league . . . He has made 547 out of 664 free throws to rank eighth in that department at .824 . . . He is fourth in assists, averaging 7.5 assists per game . . . The best center in the league should be Willis Reed who, like West, is in the top ten in three categories . . . He averages 14 rebounds per game, to rank sixth . . . He has the 9th field goal accuracy, .513, which contributes to his 22.6 scoring average, which ranks him tenth . . . Two other players are in the top ten of three departments . . . Lou Hudson is developing into a star, as the Atlanta Hawk guard is fifth in field goal percentage and scoring, and sixth in free throw percentage . . . The other player is the Boston Celtic ace John Havlicek, who is eighth in scoring and assists, and fifth in free throw percentage . . . The leaders of the various categories are, Scoring—West; Field goal percentage—Johnny Green of Cincinnati (.563); Free throw percentage—Flynn Robinson of Milwaukee (.897); Rebounding—The Baltimore Bullets' Wes Unseld (16.4 per game); and Assists—Player-coach Lennie Wilkins of Seattle (9.4 per game) . . . The NBA standings have not changed in the last several weeks . . . except for San Francisco reclaiming fifth in the West from Seattle . . . Checking the ABA, Indiana has all but won the East, as they are 45-15 . . . Kentucky, Carolina, and New York will join Indiana in the playoffs . . . The West is a 4-team race as Denver (33-25), New Orleans and Dallas (31-25), and Washington (33-28) are 1½ games apart . . . Spencer Haywood has re-taken the scoring leadership from Bob Verga and he now leads in scoring (27.3 ppg) and rebounding (19.9 per game) . . . Looking at the NHL East, the 5 top teams are separated by 10 points . . . Toronto is too confined to last, the only team in the East to score less than they gave up . . . Conversely, West leader St. Louis is the only team to score more than they gave up . . . They lead Philadelphia and Pittsburgh by 18 points, and Oakland has the inside edge for fourth place, six points ahead of Minnesota . . .
