WRECKED? Not really. Behrend students take out their frustrations at the CAR SMASH.

Golfers Take Ballers Down A-K CC Tourney In Doubleheader

The golf team at Behrend went out of the season with flying colors winning the Commonwealth Campus Tournament at U. P. Behrend tallied only 326 strokes while Fayette came in second with 342 and Capitol took third with 344 strokes. Jim Codread was the only golfer in the tournament who shot in the 70's as he was the medalist with a 78 on a cold damp day, certainly not the best day for golf.

Mike Adams shot 81, Pagliari 86, Faulhaber 85, and Levinsky 82. This is the third year in a row the Behrend golfers have won the Commonwealth Campus Tournament.

Jim Codrea also went to the Region XIX Golf Tournament in Baltimore, Md. where he finished eleventh with scores of 86 and 79 for a total of 165 strokes.

Overall the team ended up with a 6-5 record in dual matches.

Individual scores for the season are:

Behrend's baseball squad ran their record to 11-4 by downing Ashtabula-Kent State 8-4 and 8-7, last Tuesday, at Harborcreek.

It was Doug Zimmerman picking up his third win of the year against one loss, in the opener. Doug gave up one earned run on five hits, while walking three in going the route. Leading the hitting attack were Ed Deni with two hits and one RBI, Bob Johnson with two hits and Tim Nuffer with a triple and three RBIs.

In the nightcap, Bob Lackner tallied his fourth win of the year, this one in relief. Bob Johnson started the Cubs but was relieved by Lackner after 5 2/3 innings.

The Cubs were downed 7-4 going into the bottom of the seventh, but a triple with two outs by Tim Nuffer and a single by Bob Johnson sent the game into an extra inning.

San Diego Chargers 17, San Francisco 49'ers 16? . . . No, baseball is the name of that game . . . The Padres fell behind 7-0 after two innings, but battled back for a 14-14 tie after nine innings . . . Both teams scored twice in the eleventh inning, and finally in the fifteenth inning, Steve Huntz stroked a homer and it held up for the 17-16 victory . . . The next day (Sunday) the Cleveland Indians and the New York Yankees played a double-header . . . The Yankees won 6-5 and 7 . . . The offity here was that Lindy McDaniel won both games in relief, and newly acquired Fred Lasher lost both games as a reliever . . . Checking the standing finds Cincinnati and Baltimore enjoying six game leads over their nearest rivals . . . Minnesota leads the Alwest, with California half a game back and now hot Oakland six back . . . The NL East should prove exciting with Chicago, St. Louis, New York, and Pittsburgh within three and one-half games and one victory of each other . . . Pitching leaders of the National League are Jim Merritt of Cincinnati (9-2), Larry Deirher of Houston (8-3), and Tom Seaver of New York (7-2) . . . Dave McNally, despite an inflated 3.91 ERA, has a 7-2 record . . . Sudden Sam McDowell of Cleveland, Jim Perry of Minnesota, Clyde Wright of California, and Fritz Peterson of New York are six game winners, as are National leaguers Gary Nolan of Cincinnati, Bill Hands of Chicago, and Don Sutton of Los Angeles . . . Rod Carew Minnesota and Rico Carly of Atlanta lead their respective leagues with .418 averages . . . National league team leaders in batting, Atlanta, Houston, and Cincinnati . . . Pitching leaders Los Angeles, New York, and Cincinnati . . . American league batting Chicago, Minnesota, California and Baltimore . . . Henry Aaron is enjoying a great season as he leads the majors with sixteen homers, and recently collected his 3000th major league hit . . . Ernie Banks collected his 500th major league homer and Willie Mays and Frank Robinson ignored the calendar and are among the league leaders.
