Behrend Hoopsters Move Ahead On Two

By Dave Ruef

With two commonwealth campus victories under their belt, the Behrend Cubs face two important foes at Erie Hall this coming Friday night, and Saturday afternoon.

Last week Behrend opened their commonwealth campus action in fine style by defeating DuBois Campus and McKeesport Campus.

Last Wednesday, Behrend traveled to McKeesport and won the game handily by a 91-67 margin. Up by only six points at halftime, however, it took an effective zone-press to break the game wide open. Leading the Cubs in scoring was Ike Burnett with a 21 point performance. Also hitting double figures were Gary Borowy (18), Glenn McKinney (16), Ron Kwasneski (15), and Chuck Donnell (13).

On Friday, it was Behrend's well-balanced attack that blew DuBois right out of Erie Hall, as they rolled up a 91-54 win. Once again there were five Cubs in double figures, led by Gary Borowy's 23 points. He had ample support from McKinney (11), Dan Porath (12), Don Williams (11), and Doug Nelsen (10). The latter three were cited by Coach Malkin for their excellent off-the-bench performances.

Friday, January 22, Behrend entertains one of the best campus teams, New Kensington, a team which defeated Behrend last year by 30 points. Playing at home, and full of revenge, the Cubs seek to reverse last year's setback. Starting time is 8:15 p.m.

The following afternoon at 3:00 p.m., Fayette Campus visits Behrend. Last year Behrend put down Fayette by a scant two points in a thriller.

Coach Malkin had praise for his players and optimism for the big basketball weekend. "The boys have played very well up to this point. The 4-5 record is not a true indication of the team's potential, as we have played some extremely fine junior college teams thus far. I think the next two games are important and will give us a better indication on how we'll do the remainder of the year."

This reporter also sees this as a big basketball weekend, however, after this last week's victories and the next two games, I think Behrend will once again prove its superiority in the commonwealth. I encourage all to attend the all-important games this weekend.

John Fessler (134 lb.) is on his way to a takedown against Curscuzdo of Lorain. Fessler lost the match 8-7.

Weaker Sex Optimistic

Behrend Campus will unveil their female Cubs Thursday, January 21, against the Slippery Rock Independents at Slippery Rock. The talented, hardworking group of gals hopes to attain a winning record during the eight game season.

Girls basketball coach, Mrs. Laudensack, is very optimistic and hopes for student support throughout the season. "I feel the girls have shown much desire and enthusiasm in preparing for the season opener." Mrs. Laudensack also added, "Since there is no charge for admission, I expect a favorable turnout for the home games."

Sports Corner

The only thing I enjoyed about the Super Bowl was the outcome. ...Well, South Carolina is falling by the wayside in the Atlantic Coast Conference, even worse than I expected. The Gamecocks can't seem to handle a ball control team, and I'm afraid Frank McGuire's boys will see a lot more of this especially in the ACC play-offs. Right now everybody is gunning for the Gamecocks, but I look for John Roche and the rest of the New York playground team to put S.C. back on the winning track, soon! ...Tommy Prothro (UCLA), new coach of the Rams, and Dan Devine (Missouri), new coach of the Packers? Two big mistakes in my opinion. I don't think they can handle it. ...Had a chance to see Johnny Wooden's UCLA squad in Pittsburgh's Steel Bowl over Christmas, and the only thing that can be said is D-E-V-A-S-T-A-T-I-N-G. Once Sidney Wicks and Curtis Raure warm up, it's time to sit back and watch the massacre. I can't foresee the Bruins losing, even in a ball control game, because Wicks and Raure are so dominant. When you add a cast of Bibby, Patterson, Farmer, Booker and Schofield to the dynamic duo, it's time to start looking forward to the game after you play UCLA. Anybody who watched Johnny Wooden in both games had to be impressed. I've never seen a coach so calm, as if, well, it's only a matter of time.

Well, Super Bowl Sunday has come and gone and if you weren't bored with the first 3 1/2 quarters of mishaps, you saw rookie Jim O'Brien redeem himself by kicking the winning field goal.

Keggers, Hard Corp In Front

By Mike McGinley

The intramural basketball season is heading toward an exciting finish with a 'close knit' race in each league. In league A, it's the East Side Keggers at the head of the pack with a 3 - 0 record. The Keggers are followed by the Faculty, Cobras and Huskies, all at 2 - 1. The Dog Town Boys and the J.O.S.'s are bringing up the rear at 0 - 3.

In league B, the Behrend Hard Corps hold a 2-game lead with a 4 - 0 record. The NoNames, Hasannas, Kelly Heroes and Wombats are all tied at 2 - 2. In the cellar is the Nine with an 0 - 4 slate.

After the January 26 games the top two or three teams will be decided in each league, with the champions emerging from these teams.

Wrestlers Try Again On Friday

Coach Ed Onorato will lead his patched-up line-up into competition against the New Kensington campus groppers, at 6:30 p.m., Friday. This will be Behrend's first encounter with New Kensington in wrestling. Behrend presently stands 0-2 in dual meets; losing to Erie County College and Lorain County Community College.

This year's team has been riddled with injuries causing coach Onorato to juggle his line-up. Out for the season is heavyweight Larry Whistler, who is recovering from a knee operation. Definitely out for Friday's match are Jim Matteson and Joe Engerski, while Gene Biehler and Joe Hake are both doubtful starters.

As it stands now the line-up for Friday's match will be as follows 118 lb., Hedges (1-1); 126 lb., Proctor (1-1); 134 lb., Feasler (0-2); 142 lb. doubtful; 150 lb., doubtful, possibly Tom Schoffstall; 158 lb., Jancewski (1-0); 167 lb., either Erickson (1-0) or Garson (0-0); 177 lb. Stascewski; 191 lb., Biehler-doubtful; heavyweight-out.

When asked to comment on the remainder of the season, Mr. Onorato replied, "We can only look forward to our next match and no further, due to our lack of versatility and wrestlers. We have to go out and wrestle the way we want to, that's all we can do for the remainder of the season."
