Cagers Win And Lose

The Behrend Five had its ups and downs last weekend as they ran away one game and lost a heart-breaker in the other.

Last Friday Behrend coped successfully with the slow-down tactics of DuBois and marched to a 66-36 romp. Gary Borowy paced Behrend with 22 points and 13 rebounds. Borowy sat out most of the first half with 3 personal fouls, but bounced back with 15 points in the second half. Don Porath and Ron Kwasnewki hit double figures also hitting for 10 points each. Satini was tops for DuBois with 14 points.

Saturday, however, Behrend went down to defeat at the hands of Beaver Campus in a thriller. Starting off cold, Behrend was down by 20 at one point; but rallied back, with an effective zone-press, to take the lead at half-time 56-49. An inspired Beaver team was just too much in the second half as Behrend fell short 101-97. Behrend's well balanced attack was led by Borowy (23 pts.), Glenn McKinney (22 pts.), Ron Kwasneski (19 pts.), Ike Burnett (18 pts.), and Chuck Donnell (12 pts.). Coleman was high for Beaver Campus with 35 points.

Coach Malkin believed that inconsistency is the key to 5-8 record thus far. "Sometimes we look like we couldn't be beaten, other times we look sick. Our losses in league action are a combination of the improvement of the other commonwealth campus basketball programs, and the fact that everyone is out to beat Behrend. It's easy to attain the number one spot, but it's hard to keep it."

After 13 games the leading scorers are: Gary Borowy (330-25.3 avg.); Glenn McKinney (169-13.0 avg.); Ike Burnett (154-11.8 avg.); Ron Kwasneski (154-11.1 avg.); Dan Porath (81-6.2 avg.); Chuck Donnell (75-6.8 avg.); and Bob Hoffman (70-6.3 avg.).

Borowy paces the rebounding with 11.5 per game; and Bob

Hoffman is the leader in foul shooting department shooting 92 per cent. Hoffman currently has a string of 27 in a row from the charity stripe.

This Saturday, Behrend travels to Altoona Campus and Monday the team journeys to Shenango.

Wrestlers Defeated By Two Meets On The Road

By Mike McGinley
CUB Sports editor

Behrend's grapplers will try to get back on the winning track this Saturday when they face Cuyahoga-West, 2:00 p.m. at home.

The Cubs returned last weekend from a disastrous road trip which saw them lose two dual matches to DuBois Campus and Boyce Campus, Allegheny Community College.

DuBois defeated the Cubs first, last Friday night, 28-12. Behrend started off with wins by the "Three Musketeers", of Hedges, Proctor and Fessler, but then disaster set in when the Cubs lost six of the next seven by matches, five by pins. Jazenski, 158 lb., was the only other Cub to win.

Saturday, Behrend travelled to Boyce where the 'bad spell' continued. The Cubs lost all but two weight classes. At 126 lb. both teams forfeited and at heavyweight Boyce forfeited. Final score was Boyce 32, Behrend 5.

The only possible change in the Behrend line-up this Saturday will be at 126 lb., where Dave Proctor is a doubtful starter with a knee injury.

SPORTS CORNER

This year's football draft brought a lot of surprises with it. A lot of collegiate players expecting to go early in the draft were sitting by their telephones longer than they planned on. Steve Wooster, of Texas, Rex Kern of Ohio State and Ernie Jennings of Air Force, to name a few. ...I wonder what Joe Kapp will demand this year at the bargaining, with Jim Plunkett waiting in the wings.

...So the Eagles finally unloaded the infamous Norm Snead. The question is, "What are the Vikings going to do with Norm Snead?"

...George Allen should have transplanted franchises instead of switching coaching posts. Allen leaves the Rams for the Redskins and then trades for five Rams by giving up three draft choices this year and five picks next year. Redskin fans had better not look toward the future.

...Erie's Warner Theatre has yet to decide on whether they'll pickup the Ali-Frazier fight on closed circuit.

...Pirates made a good deal with the Cardinals last week.

Bucs gave up Matty Alou and George Brunet for Nelson Briles and Vice Davillio. Bucs picked up a good pitcher in Briles in return for Alou, who is expandable with Oliver, Clines and Teter, and George Brunet, who should be playing softball in a church league.

...The NBA had better take a firm stand on the Spencer Haywood case. It will only lead to a lot of confusion and trouble within the league's hierarchy.

Girls Defeat Gannon

By Dave Reuf
CUB Sportswriter

The girl's basketball team, playing in front of an enthusiastic home audience, defeated Gannon by the score of 26-22. The Gannon girls, enraged by the high-spirited crowd, challenged Behrend to a rematch. They told Mrs. Laudenstack they wanted to beat Behrend in front of the same crowd. The game will be played at a later date this month.

Julie Souer led Behrend with 17 points. She received scoring support from Dianne Rossmän (4 pts.), Lucy Sweely (3 pts.), and Janice Koester (2 pts.). Karen Shack was high for Gannon with 11 points.

The girls hit the road for the next two games. Thursday night the gals challenge Mercyhurst College, and the following Monday night, the team travels to Villa College.

Mrs. Laudenstack was pleased with the exceptional turnout for the game. "I hope the students continue to support us throughout the year."
