There was plenty of action on the TV tube this weekend for all the roundball buffs. USC vs. UCLA, number one vs. number two, opened play Saturday night, with the Bruins pulling a 64-60 victory. UCS threw a blanket on the UCLA offense with their zone defense that pestered the likes of Wicks, Rowe and Patterson the entire night. Meanwhile, Paul Westphal and Mal Layton were making believers out of those who didn't respect the Trojans, including me, with some dazzling offense. But the 'ole master', Johnny Wooden was not to be denied. With UCLA down by nine Wooden called time out and decreed to Sidney, Curtis and the boys, that USC's time had come, and that was all she wrote for the

On Sunday afternoon, it was Red Manning's Duquesne Dukes against the Wildcats of Villanova or more appropriately, Pitt-sburgh vs. Philadelphia, for the sake of the Perry Hall odd-smakers. So to speak! Well, it was the Dukes this time, 87-78, before a capacity crowd at the Civic Arena and the Perry Hall TV lounges. Duquesne won their eleventh consecutive game and ran their record to 15-2, at the expense of Howard Porter and cast. Porter could only manage 4 points on the 6'10" Nelson twins while the Dukes pulled to an 8

Porter and company came alive and cut the lead to 3 points before the Dukes closed with a 9 point win and a shot at a top ten billing. Quote of the game goes to Bill 'Dukes' May, "The Dukes are alllll right!"...

Two former Behrend athletes are continuing in the world sports elsewhere. Doug Zimmerman, former soccer, basketball and baseball star at Behrend is averaging 16 points per game at Slippery Rock College. Doug was an all-east selection two weeks ago for his hardcourt play. However, ago for his hardcourt play. Harry Doe, who played two years of soccer at Behrend is now fencing for the Penn State fencing team. .

Will Charley Finley of the Oakland Athletics ever fade away. Charley has come up with another novel idea, he wants to make it three balls instead of four for the free pass to first base. Go back to bed Mr. Finley and dream again!

Behrend Five Racks Up Two Conference Victories

Behrend Campus hiked its record to 7-8 last week with two conference victories over Shenango and Altoona Campus.

Wednesday, Erie Hall was the scene of an awesome scoring attack as Behrend ran over Shenango 81-66. Gary Borowy netted 19 makers to top the scoring parade. He was aided by Ike Burnett's and Glen McKinney's 15 point outputs. Also hitting twin-figures were Dan Porath (11 points), Chuck Donnell (11 points), and Ron Kwasneski (10 points). Burich paced Shenango with 20 points.

Saturday, the Behrend Five traveled to Altoona and defeated their opponets 76-62. Playing a sluggish game, Behrend found itself on the short end at half-time 36-26. The second-half was a completely different story. Behrend caught fire using a hustling zone-press and out-scored Altoona 50-26 in the second half. Borowy paced Behrend with 29 points, 21 of them coming in the second-half and he also pulled down 21 rebounds. Double-figure honors also went to Glen McKinney (20 points), and Ike

PSU Represented In Meet Between USSR And US

UNIVERSITY PARK, PA., Feb....This weekend's gymnastics meets between the United States and the Soviet Union will be televised as part of ABC's awardwinning "Wide World of The network announced plans to video tape both the Friday evening (Feb. 5) competition between women's national teams of the U.S. and USSR and the Saturday evening (Feb. 6) meet between the Soviet men's team and a team of Penn State gymnasts.

Portions of the two meets will be shown on "Wide World of Sports" on Saturday, February 13, at 4 p.m., Eastern Standard

Both meets, which start at 7:30 p.m., are sold out.

Penn State gymnastics coach Gene Wettstone, coach of the U.S. national team, announced the men's squad for Saturday's meet. The team includes one member of the present Penn State team, a Penn State graduate student and three former Nittany Lion Marshall Avener, a sophomore, is the leading member of the current Lion varsity. He is a member of the national team and had the third best American score in last year's World Games in Yugoslavia.

Randy Carruthers, a graduate student in physical education, will also compete. Carruthers, who did his undergraduate work at Washington State, was NAIA

Culhane, an army lieutenant, competed at Penn State from 1963 through 1966. He is a member of the national team and was an alternate for the 1968 Olympic Litow was graduate from Penn State in 1969. He was a member of the Penn State teams for 1965 to 1968 and competed in the 1969 Maccabiah Games.

Weiss is one of Penn State's most famous gymnasts. A former Eastern and NCAA all-around champion, he was a member of the 1964 Olympic team and was in the 1966 World Games competition. An outstanding gymnast at Penn State from 1959 through 1962, he teaches at Prince George's College in Maryland.

"This team is nearly as good as a national team," Wettstone says. "They will provide good competition for the Soviets.'

The Soviet men's Team, second to the Japanese in last year's World Games, is led by Mikhail Voronin, world all-around champion in 1966.

The women's competition will feature 18-year-old Cathy Rigby, the top performer for the U.S. team in last year's World Games.

Miss Rigby will be joined by Kim Chace, Palm Beach Gardens, Florida; Wendy Cluff, Long Beach, California; Adele Gleaves, Kensington, Maryland.

The Soviet women, the current world champions, are led by Lyudmila Turistcheva, the present world all-around champion, and Zinaida Voronina, who was third in last year's championships.

defending Behrend, Commonwealth Campus champs, must defeat Shenango and Beaver to enter this year's tourney at New Kensington (February 26-27).

What will Behrend have to do? Coach Malkin had the answer. "If we play the same type of ball we demonstrated in the second-half their last meeting. A big turnout of the Altoona game, we will win is expected.

our section and hopefully repeat as Commonwealth Campus champs." This Friday Behrend hosts tough New Castle Business College and the following day the team journeys to Cuyahoga. Next Wednesday the team returns to Erie Hall for the must-win game against Beaver Campus. Beaver defeated Behrend by 4 points in

CUBS Lose To Cuyahoga-West

By Mike McGinlev CUB Sportseditor

The Behrend grapplers ran into another rough spot last weekend when Cuyahoga-West invaded the Behrend wrestling mats. The visitors ran off with a 32-8 victory over the Cubs who are now 1-5 in duel meets. Cuyahoga-West came into the match with only one loss, and that was to Boyce Campus of Allegheny Community

This Saturday, at 2:00 p.m., in Erie Hall, Behrend faces Cuyahoga-Met, who lost to Cuyahoga-West, earlier in the season, 29-6. The top match of the afternoon should take place in the arter hoof should take place in the 134 lb. weight class, where Behrend's John Fessler will face Cuyahoga- Met's, John Young, the second place finisher in National Junior Collegiate Athletic Association last season.

Commenting on the match against Cuyahoga-West, head coach, Ed Onorato, said, "They were tougher than we had anticipated, but I was much more pleased with this match than the previous two matches against Dubois and Boyce."
