CHORUS NEWS

On Tuesday night, the College Community Chorus helped the University celebrate its 100th anniversary by participating in the program held here at Highacres for University Alumni and present students of the Center. The chorus sang the college songs and closed their part of the program with a special request number, 'I've Been Working on the Railroad'.

The chorus is still short of women. Any girl at all, who is interested in singing, is urged to come to the chorus' meeting next Tuesday evening. Transportation to Highacres can be easily arranged if you have no way of getting here. See Miss Garbrick or one of the chorus members if you are interested. Membership is open to all interested persons in the community as well as in the college, so bring your friends too.

STUDENTS GRIEVE

The students of Highacres share the grief of the community in general at the death of Dr. Din, a Pakistan exchange doctor. Dr. Din, who was found dead in his room at the State Hospital's doctors residence last Sunday had been scheduled to speak at the center this Friday afternoon.

CAMPUS CHARACTER #2
GUS GRUMPS

An unpleasant person is our friend Gus Grumps,
A student who is always down in the dumps.
He gripes about classes, school spirit and parking,
The problem might not be so bad if he did something more than talking.

Just before a bluebook, Gus' company makes you wail,
He frets and fumes and says he knows that he is sure to fail.
Then the exams come back and Gus' mark is low,
The teacher had a grudge against him. "Didn't you know."

No matter what happens, Gus complains all the while,
People have given up trying to make him smile.
So Gus goes through life in his own sad way,
If you talk to Gus, don't let him spoil your day.

MRS. "K" RETURNS

Mrs. Kostenbauder, our center nurse, has recently returned to her duties after spending a few days in the hospital.
We're glad to see you back!
