Anonymous - No, but Elaine Ferko was once. Elaine got a big box in the mail. When she opened it and kept finding smaller and smaller boxes until she found one about two inches square with a note in it saying "April Fool". She still doesn't know who did it. (Could anon. be the guilty one, Elaine?)

Neither Larry Kowalski, nor Robert MacKinder could remember ever being an April Fool. (Maybe it's just the April vanity they don't remember being.)

Pete McMonigle - Yes, in high school someone told me one teacher wasn't there and class had been cancelled, so I didn't go to class. The teacher was there and I had skipped class.

STUDENT COUNCIL
 Representatives in Council
 By M.F. Veale

Since there were only two petitions submitted, one for each vacated office, the nominees were unanimously declared by Mr. Mattern as council members. Mary Jane Skoff and Russ Brungard are the new representatives for the Sophomore and Freshman, respectively.

Finance

The Council decided to donate $25 to be given with the faculty's donation for the All Faith Chapel erected at the main campus in honor of the late Mrs. M. Eisenhower.

The Fraternity asked the Council for $2 for supplies, but the Council decided that since the Fraternity is a closed organization, it could not qualify for Student Government Funds.

Although basketball was terminated before the end of the season, the coach was paid the full amount, since there were only two weeks remaining.
