

COLLEGIAN

Weekly Newsletter Edition
The Pennsylvania State University Center
Hazleton, Penna.

Vol. XVIII No. 5

October 24, 1955

PREXY HONORED

Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Penn State University, was one of five persons presented with awards, Tuesday, October 11, at a dinner held in Washington, D.C., sponsored by the Pan-American Union.

The dinner was held in honor of the four hundred sixty-third anniversary of the discovery of America. Dr. Eisenhower was cited for outstanding work in the promotion of inter-American understanding and friendship. After the dinner, he flew to Denver, to visit his brother, President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

* * * * *

STATE HAS RECORD ENROLLMENT

According to the dean of admissions and registrar, C. O. Williams, a record enrollment for Penn State University has been established this fall.

The official figures list a total of 15,352 students enrolled at the campus and centers for the fall semester. The total exceeds, by over 1000, last years figure of 14,271, and even tops the University record total enrollment of 1949, when 14,732 were registered.

Enrollment at the centers total 2699 (2322 men-377 women). Also at the eleven centers, there are 1092 men and 24 women in the two-year Associate programs.

FRESHMEN INITIATION!

On October 26,27,28 all freshmen will observe the following:

Girls: No makeup.
Wear paper bows in hair.

Boys: Crepe paper bowties.
One pants leg rolled up.

All: Wear hats.
Carry sophomore's books.
Bow down to sophomores when asked.
Wear colored socks.
Carry umbrella - at all times.

All: Sing: FRESHMAN CRAZY FRESHMAN
FRESHMAN OF OLD PENN
STATE (to tune of Davy Crockett)

If there are any violations of the above rules a fine will be imposed. The fines are: first offense $.25, second $.50, and third $1.00.

Captain Carper has confirmed the report that ROTC students would not have to wear their uniforms on Thursday, October 26.

(NOTE: All veterans are excluded from this "activity.")