COUNCIL ACCEPTS BOWLING

VETERANS CLUB FORMS

The veterans of Highacres organized into a group this past Friday to consolidate themselves in matters which affect the veterans here at school. The aims of this organization are to promote the social and political problems of the veteran. The club will also serve to inform the veteran on questions concerning the G.I. Bill, the benefits and problems connected with this Bill, as well as information of a scholastic nature.

Lee Schmeltz was elected as President of the group with Conrad Dougherty and Jame Dino being elected Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer respectively. Representatives named to attend Student Council meetings and other functions include Joseph Boyle, George Ator, Bernard Steber and Albert Humza.

A committee was set up to draft a charter and constitution subject to group approval. Besides the three officers, this committee also includes Joseph Boyle, John Reichart, and Methody Sirkot.

UNANIMOUS DECISION REACHED AFTER LENGTHY DISCUSSION

The Student Council accepted the plans for a Penn State Center Bowling League on Friday, October 28. The league was formulated by the Sports Committee, headed by Ben Tuchi and by James Koren, a non-member of the committee who, at this meeting, was nominated to his post by the Council.

The Playhouse Bowling Alleys have definitely been secured for the use of the league, with each player paying 10¢ per game. The bowling shoes will be provided by the management, along with trophies awarded to each individual of the winning team. The Sports Committee will take into consideration the awarding of trophies to the high ~~gross~~ ~~score~~ in both male and female classes, and also to the high average in each class. It was decided that the season will last 19 weeks, including 1 week ~~roll~~ ~~for~~ averages. It was decided that identification cards will be issued to each bowler. Also, the faculty has been invited to compete in the league.
