

SPORTS

Sports

PENN STATE does have a champion-ship team to be proud of. Soccer at Penn State, which is over-shadowed by football right now, has drawn a major interest from schools all over the country. The State Booters were national champions last year and at present have a 14-game winning streak (started in 1953) to keep intact. Paced by four veterans of the 1954 champion-ship team, the Booters should repeat as champions.

merry way, with a close 4-3 decision over the Bucknell Bisons on Wednesday, October 19th. This is the 14th. straight for the Booters and puts them on another rung on their climb to the National title.

BRUCE BOSLEY, of West Virginia, by his outstanding play in Saturday's game against Penn State was voted the AP "Lineman of the Week." The 225 lb. tackle sparked the Mountaineers to a second-half rally to down the Lions, 21-7.

The 44th. RENEWAL of old grid wars will be thrashed out Saturday, October 29th., at Franklin Field in Philadelphia. Winless PENN and the hot-and-cold Lions will try to outlast each other this year. Penn holds the series edge throughout the years (the first game was played in 1890) 25-14; four games have ended in ties. Last year, State, behind Lenny Moore, rolled over the Quakers 35-13. If Moore is hot, the Lions should romp; if not, it will be close.

Gene Wettstone, who put gymnastics on a permanent footing at Penn State in 1939, owns a 17 year record of 56 wins - 25 defeats.

Bob Rutherford, jr., who succeeded his father as the Penn State golf coach in 1950, has a six year record of 41 wins in 50 starts.

The STATE HARRIERS lost in a cross-country duel with Michigan State Saturday, October 22nd, by a 18-43 decision. State has yet to win this year, losing previously to Navy and Cornell.

Penn State Wrestlers, with Charlie Speidel at the helm, have a record of 139 wins, 32 defeats and 7 ties since 1927.

Lenny Moore, State's great half-back, hasn't reached last year's form as yet. He definitely has been the factor in State's so-so showing this year. In Saturday's (October 22nd.) showing against Virginia, he was held to 47 yards in 14 carries.

ANOTHER WIN... and the Penn State Booters continue on their (to be con't)

