

FRESHMAN INITIATION

The past three days have been devoted to freshman initiation. This year the freshman were very co-operative, and the majority of the freshman carried out the initiation rules. Some of the sights seen around the campus were:

- The cute high school dinks
- The red crepe paper bows
- Ann K. Sarli's red argyle knee socks
- Foster Billheimer's black derby
- Jim Chudy's appearance and fine voice
- Joann Kenvin's sunbonnet
- Jim Evans orange and black polka dot tie
- Veronica Montz's cowboy hat
- Jimmy Apple's red sailor hat
- The Mattavi's "Spoke" umbrellas
- Jackie Prysbeck's miniature umbrella
- Jean Reed's 12" x 10" bow
- The cute red and green berets
- Sandy Coxe's rain bonnet
- Bob Stish's "hat with wings"
- Vernon Sinn's color combination
- Bill Root's pink motorcycle hat.

The human brain is wonderful. It starts right in working the moment you wake up in the morning and doesn't stop until you are called on in class.

AFROTC NEWS

The Highacres AFROTC Drill team took 6th place in their class in the Mummer's Parade which was held in Hazleton on Saturday, October 22. Their prize of $25.00 will be used to help cover the military ball expenses.

The team will also march in a military parade at Pottsville which will precede a football game between New Castle Air Force Base, Wilmington, Delaware, and the United States Coast Guard of Cape May, New Jersey. The game, which will be held at Pottsville High School Stadium, for the benefit of the 1956 March of Dimes Campaign.

The Rifle Team is in the process of being selected. The results will be posted on the bulletin board in the near future.

All cadets should note that in the event of rain on Mondays, they should report to their commanding officers before leaving the center. Otherwise they will be marked absent from leadership lab, and also they will receive demerits.
