FINE PERIOD RETRACTED

HALLOWE'EN PARTY A SUCCESS

The first party of the semester was held Friday, October 28, from 8:30 P. M. to 12:00 P. M. at the Eagles Clubhouse in Hazleton. A crowd, consisting of Penn State students both old and new, State Hospital student nurses and other guests, made a total of over 250 people. Decorations of orange and black with weird pumpkins created the traditional atmosphere. The music was provided by Gabe Flint and his orchestra.

A fine intermission program was planned by Larry Kowalski. There was a scavenger hunt to begin the festivities along with such activities as bobbing for apples, etc. A "show" was also given with Jean Reed singing a novelty tune which eventually had the entire audience singing with her. Kowalski emceed a take-off on the "$64,000 Question" which was called the "64,000 calorie question," with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roguski as the contestants. After they answered the big questions, Kowalski proceeded to take out mythical "calorie taxes" and they were awarded a juicy apple for their trouble. Barbara Grubbs then constructed an animated picture using students and chaperones as the articles described. The stunt

COUNCIL RETURNS TO 24-HOUR FINE PAYMENT PERIOD

The 48-hour period in which to pay the traffic fines was retracted and returned to the normal 24-hour time limit Friday, Nov. 4 at the regular Student Council meeting. This was done because of a formal protestation made to the Council by William Smith, Traffic Committee chairman,

The Traffic Committee made the remark that they didn't want to feel that they are just animated servants to the Student Council, especially in the administration of their own business to which they are assigned and in which they specialize.

On a report from the Social Committee, the following calendar was approved: On Nov. 23, the Thanksgiving Semi-formal will be held. More information will be released later. On Dec. 30, the Christmas Party will be held which will be on the same principal as last week's Halloween Party. A Sadie Hawkins Day dance and Halleliah Party will be held on the final day of the semester, Friday, January 27.

The appointment of Jean Reed to the Social Committee was announced by the council in lieu of her fine performance and exceptional work towards the success of the party last week.
