(Halloween Party)

worked fine, bringing about a few laughs on the chaperones at the end.

A 'hypnotic' act was performed by Larry Kowalski using an unsuspecting Pat Maggio. Final result: Not a red face for Miss Maggio, but a black one.

Nonsensical prizes were given to the committees and chaperones. George Ator was awarded the door prize of a second-hand washer - - - one that prevents leaks in a faucet. Joe Yesonofski was awarded the second door prize, an immense pumpkin, and Nick Deakos received the 'booby' door prize of a wallet-size photo of President Kowalski.

After the show, the refreshment committee went into action. Cider, doughnuts and pretzels were served at the 'bar'.

Midnight, the witching hour, marked the end of a very successful, fun-filled evening.

Special thanks should be extended to the chaperones, Mrs. Kostenbauder, Miss Dosenbach and Mr. DeFina; Theresa Bobowski, social chairman, Tess Sherry, decorations chairman, Rhoda Smulyan, and John Zeminy, refreshment committee, Mary Tihansky, publicity, Bill Smith, activities and to the respective committeemen who helped make this dance the tremendous success it was.

(Council)

John Marsicano turned in his resignation, and Carol Mastroianni was appointed to the chairmanship of the committee. Patsy Ksanznak was appointed to fill the vacancy created by Mastroianni.

Other appointments made were Charles Kellmer and Charles Tyrone to the Sports Committee.

The House Rules Committee has been empowered to draw rules for the student lounge and the cafeteria. They have also been ordered to enforce these rules upon acceptance by the Council.

The Council approved the use of the Rec Hall for another cigarette sale on November 16.

There will be no further meetings of Council until notified.

All cadets who have not yet participated in a flight should do so on Nov. 11, 12, 13, or 14. Capt. Carper has asked that all cadets who have not yet been on a flight, to sign up for a flight on either of the above mentioned dates. Although these cadets will be given first preference, any cadet may sign up.

(Sorority)

Plans have been made to have a guest speaker at the next meeting on Nov 17. The scheduled guest is to give a cosmetic demonstration from Cul's Gift Shoppe in Hazleton. She will speak to the girls on the correct use of cosmetics, and will make a demonstration on one of the girls.

Council has informed the sorority that the SGA will rent a gym for the sorority to play basketball. If there is enough interest in this activity, there will be games played between teams of the sorority members.

Pictures taken by Capt Carper are now available at a cost of .50 each.
