

BOB MILLER, DRAFTING TEAM,
SPARKLE IN SUNDAY'S GAMES

Four marks were bettered on Sunday, December 10, as the league wound up its fifth week of competition.

Bob miller, anchor-man on the Comp team, set a league high three-game series mark of 539, and moved up to the number three spot in individual average by boosting his average up five points to 159. Jim Koren, responding with a 538 triple, is tied with Ray Bittner for second place in high three-game total.

Margie Churilla bettered the women's mark for individual high game with a 133.

The Drafting team, currently the hottest team in the league, by winning their last nine games, bettered their own match record for high three-game series with a 2148 total. They also established a new single game total of 758.

Ray Bittner continues to lead the league in high average with 163, Charles Tarone being the number two man with 160. Barbara Grubbs, Sandy Coxe, and Florence Bones are tied in high average for the women with a 100 average.

The Speech and Engineering teams are, at present, tied for the league lead, with the Drafting team surging close-by in third place.

A further reminder to all bowlers: THERE WILL BE NO MATCHES PLAYED ON DEC. 25 OR ON JAN. 1. The regular matches will continue after the holiday vacation.

*****

STATE STATEMENTS

Steve Flamporis, right half-back on State's undefeated 1955 Soccer team, was named captain-elect of the 1956 team, succeeding All-American Dick Packer. The team will carry five letter-men from this year's winning combination.

Lenny Moore set three Penn State records in his varsity career. His 1082 yards in 1954 was a single season high in ground gaining, and his 2380-yard total qualified as a three-year high, both in ground gaining and total offense.

A new attendance record was set this year at Penn State during the 1955 football season. The 33,112 at the Navy game marked a new single game high, while the four-game total of 113,912 topped the previous season high of 103,751, set at five games in 1952.

Maryland, a major football power in recent years, has yet to win a game against the Nittany Lions. The Nittany Lions have beaten Maryland six straight times. The Lions, too, have beaten the Tarheels eight times on the soccer field in eight attempts since 1948.

In 69 years of intercollegiate football, Penn State has won 348, lost 191, and tied 33.

Seven Penn State athletes were in the 1924 Olympic Games. Five of them were track and field specialists.

*****

A student government officer at the University of San Francisco wrote to the University of California concerning the use of the honor system during exams, received this reply: "The University of California abandoned the honor system several years ago when it became evident that the professors had the honor and the students had the system."

