On Friday evening, January 13, 1956, Parnassus held its regular initiation meeting for the Fall semester in the main lounge with President Russell Brungard presiding.

The requirements for membership in the Highacres Honor Society are as follows:

A student must have an all college average of 2.5 if he or she is enrolled in the third or fourth semesters.

A student must have a grade average of 2.8 if he or she is enrolled in the second semester.

A student must have also acquired a total of not less than five activity points during each semester attending.

At the meeting held on Friday evening, William Smith and Beverly Rimm were accepted into the society as regular members. At the same time, Marilyn Swank, Jacqueline Kassel, and Adele Reytar were pledged pending acceptance during the second semester.

The meeting was attended by faculty and student members of Parnassus, and refreshments were served to all members attending.
