TROPHY FOR BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Student Council, at its meeting on Friday, March 2, decided that the un-inscribed trophy that is over the fireplace in the main lounge, shall be inscribed with the names of the winners of this year's intramural basketball tournament. At a previous meeting of the Student Faculty Board, it was decided that the Student Government Association could determine just what was to be done with this un-inscribed trophy.

There will be no meeting of Student Council on Friday March 9.

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

The number and variety of scholarships in the College of Mineral Industries is steadily growing. Anyone who wants information on the scope and value of these scholarships, should consult Mr. Noble.

ATTENTION STUDENTS WHO NEED BOOKS

Any students who intend to purchase new textbooks from the Center Bookstore, should do so immediately as all unsold books will be returned to the Main Campus next week.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS WALKING

The traffic rules and regulations of the Center state that no student will park his car at the top of the hill unless a special permit is granted; the speed limit on the driveway is 15 miles per hour; and that a student will be fined for violating these rules.

There are also rules and regulations, here at Highacres, governing the actions of students. One of these rules that is constantly violated is the rule concerning students walking up the hill. The rule that applies to this situation is that all students shall walk to the left of the road, facing traffic. Icy conditions on the hill could lead to serious injury to students who violate this rule, and
