(Carper)

The Carpers are daughter, Leslie. formerly from Winchester, Virginia.

Major Caper is a combat veteran of World War II. He served with the 15th. Air Force in Italy and is credited with 52 combat missions as a fighter pilot. Among other decorations he holds the Distinguished Flying Cross.

(Bowling)

The Second-place Engineering team took only two out of three from the last place Botany club, thereby missing a chance to tie for the League leadership. Ray Bittner's 521 triple and Howard Paden's 203 third game aided the Engineering Team in creating the new high team single game of 800.

Fourth place Music took two out of three from Algebra. Leon Dapson's 500 series paved the way.

As it stands now, Accounting has 26 points, Engineering and Speech have 252 points, and Music 25 points.

In other games played, Composition, led by Bob Miller's 540 series, took two out of three from Drafting. Ed Smith's 201 single and 516 triple were high for Drafting. History took two out of three from Zoology.

In what shapes up how as a run-to-thewire, the individual leadership race in average is now reduced to a bare .4 of a point. Ray Bittner, the leader since the opening week, still leads with a 164.0, but Jim Koren, who has steadily been climbing is now in second place, at 163.6, by a difference of only 14 pints.

(Bowling) 1500

An important match, next Sunday, March 11, will bring together the two, second-place teams. in the field to see all the

A reminder to all bowlers - there are only five more weeks of bowling o maka masinsi mena 🞉 remaining. III the strain in the strain strains

Sports

Basketball!!!!!!!!

The bpening game in the Penn State Center Intramural Double Elimination Basketball Tournament played two weeks ago, saw the Warriors trounce the Celtics 117-39, and the Knicks romp over the Lakers by an 87-34 score.

The Warriors had six men hitting in the couble figures, of whom, Mlasgar (28), Miller (24), and Tarone (23,) proved to be the big noisemakers. Hill led the Celtics with 20 points.

^{*}្នាស់ សំខ្លួន នៃប្រសាស្ត្រ។ The Knicks had five men in the double figures with Stish being the biggest producer, with 31 points. The 31 points, by the way, is the highest individual total in the League thus far. Sappe and Andrev had 8 apiece for the Lakers.

In games played this past Friday, the Royals and the Pistons each won their opening games in the Tournament.

In the opening game, the Royals walloped the Nationals, 54-22, behind Huber's 18 points and Gimmer's 15. Van Horn placed the Nationals with 10 points. · New Lower gas costs

The second game saw the Pistons run away with the Hawks by a 72-24 score. McFadden and Lazur led the winners with 19 points apiece. Ocksreider and T. Dougherty led the Hawks with 8 points apiece.

(to be con't)