On Monday, April 16, the College Arts Society will present a movie entitled 'The Moon and Sixpence,' in the main lounge at 8:00 pm. Since attendance at previous movies held on Monday nights has been rather low, the Society has considered changing the schedule to some night other than Monday.

The radio play that the Society has been working on so diligently for the past months has finally been approved and rehearsals have been started. The play entitled 'The Necklace' will be presented over radio station WAZL sometime during the month of April. The exact date will be announced later.
