

(Sports)

Moyer, VanHorn, and Velkie hit in the double figures for the Nats while Bradish and Ondrey were high for the Lakers. Kovatch dropped in 33 points and Dougherty 20 for the Hawks; Frable had 15 for the Celtics.

Bowling. . . There is a saying that the third time you go down, you drown! If that is the case, watch out Accounting!

After a two-month surge, the Accounting team finally made it about a month ago. A week after, they were bounced out of first and just three weeks ago, won to share the top spot, but again with the teams having it out, they are now in third place.... It is now anybody's guess as to who will be on top next week. Once again, only 1/2 game separate the first three teams. Engineering and Music are on top with Accounting in third, 1/2 game off the pace. This Sunday, the Music and Accounting teams face each other in the important match of the year.

Games of March 11.....After squeezing to a 1 pin win, the Engineers, led by league leading Ray Bittner's double in the last frame of the second game, and Karl Peter's 173 last game (5 strikes in the last 4 frames) once again wound up in first place, 1/2 game ahead of Accounting and Music. Ray Bittner's 491 triple paced the winners while Charlie Tarone's 454 was high for Speech.

The Music team, by taking 3 games from History, went into a second-place tie with Accounting. Leon Dapson's 536 triple was tops for Music.

Jim Koren, with a 499 total, led the Accounting team in 2 out of 3, while Kuklis (453), Yesenofski (443) and Sukonik (403) combined to give Zoology their punch.

In other games, Ed Smith with a 512 and Al Kosiak with a 449, led Drafting 2 out of 3 over Botany. Geo. Oksreider led Botany with a 529 triple, second highest of the afternoon. Comp and Algebra played to a standstill; each won one game and tied for the other. Bob Miller was high for Comp with a 502; Connie Dougherty led Algebra with a 482.

Games of March 18.....Accounting went into a tie for first place by taking three games from History. Jim Koren, with a 515 triple led the winners, while Nick Cassano's 438 total was tops for History.

Music took three games from Speech to share first place with Accounting. Leon Dapson's 527 was high for Music. Charlie Tarone had a 449 triple for Speech.

Engineering, by dropping one out of three, dropped from first to third place, 1/2 game out. Ray Bittner's 207 single, and 583 triple led the Engineering team. Bittner's 583 triple establishes a new league record. Berta's 205 single and 457 triple was high for Drafting.

In other games, Comp took 3 from Botany, and Algebra took 3 from Zoo. Bob Miller led Comp with a 491; George Oksreider led Botany with a 464. Vic Schultz (395) and Bill Smith (389) led Algebra, while John Kuklis 442 led Zoo.

Ray Bittner continues to lead the men in the individual average lead, with Jim Koren a close second. Sam Coxe, prior to her departure, led all women by a large margin.