

February 14, 1957

Page 3

GREETINGS FROM Mr. SCHNEIDER

by
L.J. SOROKATCH

Special greetings to our new students who are becoming acquainted with educational opportunities at the Highacres Campus for the first time this 1957 spring term. We wish for every success, and offer you a special invitation to drop in the office whenever you have a question. Since as a newcomer you will undoubtedly need certain clarified information which the oldtimers of one semester or more already know, you must please feel free to visit the office at any time.

JOKES

Little Boy: "What do you repair these shoes with?"
Cobbler: "Hide."
Little Boy: "Why should I hide?"
Cobbler: "Hide! Hide! The cow's outside."
Little Boy: "So what? Who the heck's afraid of an old cow?"

The Professor who comes into class 15 minutes late is rare. In fact he is in a class by himself.

STAFF OF THIS ISSUE

Editor-in-Chief: L.J. Sorokatch
Assistant Editor: G. Opilla
Active Members: Lyla Berish, Jacqueline Kessel, John Benner, Cave Snyder, Ted Kirby, Michael Remas, Ralph Warmar, Robert Parsons, Karl Rekas, Rosemary Arlotto, Mary L. Scaran.

MEET Mrs. BODENSTEIN

by
G. OPILLA

Mrs. Bodenstein was prepared for the interview and greeted me in her usual gracious way with that pleasant and charming English diction that has made her so popular at Highacres. Mrs. Bodenstein informed me that she was born in London, England, in the area of Piccadilly. She came to America in 1934. She received her B.A. and M.A. from the University of Texas. No stay-at-home, not Mrs. Bodenstein! She has travelled in Germany, Italy, Holland, in her native England, and in her adopted land, America. We believe that America gained a decided asset when Mrs. Bodenstein took out an application for citizenship.

As a form of relaxation from her duties as an English and German instructor at Highacres, Mrs. Bodenstein likes to listen to music. Her favorite composers are Mozart, Chopin, and Beethoven. Her opinion of Elvis Presley? "He is a natural outlet for a certain type of adolescents". (Big cats) She also enjoys swimming, tennis, football, and walking amid much of the beautiful scenery of Pennsylvania. Her favorite movie actor is Alex Guinness.

Mrs. Bodenstein visited England in 1950 for the golden wedding anniversary of her parents. She has a daughter who is a sociology major at the University of Texas.

We of the Highacres Collegian and the members of the teaching staff want to wish Mrs. Bodenstein a most successful and happy stay at Highacres.

P.S. Mrs. Bodenstein will become a grandmother in June.
