

PROFESSOR KAFKA BUSY AS JUDGE

Professor Andrew Kafka of our Highacres English Department has had a busy week of being judge in three area activities:

1. He judged the Oratorical Contest, sponsored by the Carbon County High School Principals' Association, in Jim Thorp; (2) the Ninth Annual National Essay Contest on the subject Employment of the Handicapped--A Community Responsibility, sponsored by the U.S. President's Committee, Governor Leader's Committee, and, locally, the Greater Hazleton Committee on the Employment of the Handicapped; (3) (With Mr. Longo of the Business Administration Dept.) Greater Hazleton Best Letter for the Best Checker of the Year, sponsored by the Genetti five super-markets and the nation Super-Market Institute.

JOKES

The one who thinks all jokes are poor
Would straightway change his views.
Could he compare the jokes we print
With those we could not use!

"I wish I had a nickel for every girl I've kissed."
"What would you do, buy a pack of gum?"

Some lectures are like steer horns-- a point here, a point there and a lot of bull in between.

ARE YOU MISSING THE FUN AT HIGHACRES

It seems as though September were just here
And already it's February of an entirely new year.

Classes have started and lectures are heard Each student listens and grasps every word.
If you peak in the classrooms you are bound to see Students taking notes very intelligently
Yet, with all of this studying, there is need for some fun.
Highacres has activities for each and everyone.

If you like to sing and enjoy each song
Join the COLLEGE CHORUS-- you can't go wrong.

COLLEGE ART SOCIETY sponsors movies, varied as can be;
The dates will be listed, and admission is free.

Do you like sports and have a strong throw?
The BOWLING TEAM needs you, we want you to know.

"Touche" says the fencer and bends his knees

Highacres's FENCERS are pleasant to see
For only the fairer sex (sorry no men) Membership in THEATA SIGMA PI is possible again.

The STUDENT GOVERNMENT works hard each year
Supervising activities and keeping debts clear.

The COLLEGIAN, this newspaper, is the last on the long list

If you like to write, join-- you may become a journalist.

As you read this rare verse, surely you will note

One or two activities that you would like to promote.

Join the ones of your choice today
Pray don't delay.
