

"I'M trying to create an original style; so the grammatical mistakes are there on purpose."

Answers to quiz on page four

1. Lansing, Michigan
2. Five below
3. They have just had a March of thirty-one days.
4. Sixteen; for (four) better, for worse, for richer, for poorer.
5. The side the son sets on.
6. When he's a little shaver.
7. Both have caused the downfall of man.
8. You can't convict a man without a hearing.
9. When the dove brought the green back to Noah.
10. Jail birds.

MAKE WITH THE JUICE, BRUCE!

Will you be a blood donor on either April 9th. or April 23rd.? Our insurance expires May 28th, so we need 10% of our enrollment donating a pint of blood to provide receipts until the fall semester.

The following constitute our committee: Mr. Ward, Mr. Esher, Capt. Harhi, Mr. Maggio, Mr. Petruska, and Mrs. Kostenbauder.

LEADER SPEAKS ON CAMPUS

Governor George M. Leader was the guest speaker of the College of Business Administration Career Day program on March 14. Upon his arrival, Gov. Leader was met at the Philipsburg Airport by C. S. Wyand, University vice-president. After a brief tour of the campus, he made a guest appearance at the Career Day Coffee Hour at Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

That evening, All-Uni-President Robert Bahrenburg, presented the governor with an engraved Nittany Lion Statuette purchased by the B. A. Student Council. The statuette is the traditional Career Day symbol of appreciation given in behalf of the student body. His address was given in Schwab auditorium at eight o'clock.

--Daily Collegian--

OUR STAFF FOR THIS ISSUE Volume One, Number Three

Editor-in-chief-----R. Hildebrand
 Assistant Editor----T. Kirby
 Stencil Typists-----Lyla Berish, Jane Hunchar, Vivian Karvounis, Mary Lou Scaran
 Mimeograph-----John Benner
 Reporters-----George Opilla, Jackie Kessel, Martha Preputnik, Bob Parsons, Gerry Wilkowski, Carol Milko, Karl Rekas, Mary Lou Scaran, Mimi Arlotto
 R.O.T.C. News-----Larry Sorokatch
 Advisor-----Andrew Kafka

Are you looking for excitement, adventure, travel and romance?

If so--
 Contact the R.O.T.C. office.