

"LENT--A TIME FOR FASTING AND MODERATION"

"LENT IS THE PREPARATION FOR THE CHRISTIAN TO REALLY PARTICIPATE IN THE CELEBRATION OF OUR LORD'S RESURRECTION" * * * * *

When thinking of Lent, the first thing many students think of is the vacation which is gradually drawing near. However, when we as individuals think of the Lenten season, we think of our own sentiments regarding this time of year. The following, along with Mr. McKinstry's comments on page two, are a few of the sentiments expressed by members on the faculty.

Lent is a time for fasting and moderation in everything we do. This moderation should be carried on throughout the year, and not set aside for this particular season. --Mrs. Bodenstein

Lent is a time for renewing one's vows to participate more fully in academic activities. --Mr. Wilcox

In the spring of each year the world series ball players go into training to become capable, top players for the World Series. Lent is the preparation for the Christian to really participate in the Easter celebration of our Lord's resurrection. If you do not have this spring or Lenten preparation you will not be able to enjoy Easter, but will be like the player who never took his spring training, and instead sat on the grand stand not knowing he has missed a great opportunity. --Mrs. Kostenbauder

Pick up your paper every morning and what do you read? "Crisis in Higher Education!" "Desperate Need for More Classrooms, More Teachers." But classrooms, alas, do not spring up like mushrooms, nor teachers like mayflies. So what must we do while we build more classrooms, train more teachers?

The answer can be given in one word: Speedup! Speed up the educational process and Streamline courses. Eliminate frills. Sharpen! Quicken!

Following is a list of courses with suggested methods to speed up each one.

Physics-- eliminate slow neurons.
Engineering-- make slide rules only half as long.

Music-- change all tempo to allegro.

Algebra-- if "x" always equals "0", much time consuming computation can be eliminated.

Languages-- teach all language courses in English.

Poetry-- amalgamate the classics. Like this--

Hail to thee, blithe spirit
Shoot if you must this old gray head
You aint nothing but a hound dog
Smiling, the boy fell dead.
