

THE COLLEGE ARTS SOCIETY

Stanley M. Zdep

The College Arts Society, with Mr. Wilcox as advisor, is already formulating plans for the forthcoming year. During the first week of the semester John Benner, a sophomore, was elected president of the organization. Mr. Benner then selected a committee of Maxwell, Reilly, and Scaran to investigate possibilities of presenting an art exhibit in connection with the Hazleton Art League.

Foreign motion pictures to be shown this year were selected. They are, in order of presentation: SYMPHONIE PASTORALE, THE INFORMER; and THE FIFTY-FIRST DRAGON; THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS; and FATHER BROWN, THE DETECTIVE. The dates when these films will be shown are, as yet, incomplete.

HIGHACRES CAMPUS

Bernard Goydich

The Penn State University, Highacres Campus will get a Student Union Building, the Hazleton Educational Council, advisory group for the center, decided at a recent meeting.

Construction will get under way at the earliest possible date. It is planned to have it in operation by September, 1958.

Last year, the student body carried on an extensive campaign for a student union building. The student council went on record to assess each student $10 per semester, the money to go into a student union building fund. CONTINUED
