

THE COLLEGE COMMUNITY CHORUS

The College Community Chorus, composed of Penn State Center students, alumnae, faculty members, and interested adults and high-school students from the community, are to be commended for their work of the past year. Two difficult and challenging oratorios, Handel's Messiah and Mendelssohn's Elijah, have been performed in a manner that will do credit to both High-acres and the Hazleton area. This chorus is the only choral group in this area that has been capable of surmounting the technical difficulties of both works. Thanks is due to Miss Pearl G. Garbrick, Assistant Professor of Music, for her discriminating taste, musicianship, and able direction of the Chorus, and to Lyla Berish, who accompanied the Chorus in both presentations. We also want to take advantage of this opportunity to thank the people who helped make the Chorus a success: the builder of the risers, the ushers, the people who contributed the gowns, and the many, many other people without whose help the Chorus would not have succeeded.

Student members of the Chorus are:

Jacqueline Kessel, Carol Mastroianni, George Fatula, Carl Bugaiski, Calvin Deitch, Neville McAfee, Richard Maggio, Mrs. Susan Schwartz, and John Avigliano.

The Chorus extends special thanks to:

Faculty: Mrs. Elizabeth Bodenstein. Alumnae: William Hebel, Robert Zimmerman, and James Eidam. Ushers: Joann Kevin, Mary Merker, Martha Preputnik, and Karl Rekas.

